IN THE NAME OF ALLAH THE MOST GRACIOUS, THE MOST MERCIFUL.

Praise be to Allah, with all His Glorious Extolments and Peculiarities related to all the Favors of Him. prayer and peace be upon our master prophet Mohammed' and his kind purified house hold furthermore.

The need to simplify the heritage, make it feasible and very near to the people's apprehension, is dedicated by the fact that all the juristic Texts and provisions have not been monopolized specifically to the learned people only other than the public or the individuals of the nation at large.

So, If all the texts concerning the juristic judgments can not be usually digested but by the specialists of the diligent jurisprudents, then the moral, ethical, and educational Traditions as well as narrations are to be addressed verily to the Muslim whatever his ideological or intellectual levels are.

Therefore in creasing the sense, towards the necessary need to facilitate the books of tradition, which include inside their pages the treasures of knowledge, the jewels of the narrated prophetic and the house hold's wisdoms, to him and - to his household may Allah's prayer be granted - has been increased enormously in an attempt to avoid keeping them away from the majorities of the nation, and to make them available to those who are enthralled or bewitched by the prophetic wisdom, and the seekers of knowledge who are striving diligently towards purifying and straightening their souls by means of the useful science and good deeds.

We saw, therefore, that the book of attributes or peculiarities by the trustworthy honest SHEIKH of the sect AL-SADOOQ (MUHAMMED BIN 'Ali BIN AL-HUSSEIN BIN BABAWYA AL-QUMMI) - Who died in (381H) - was one of the most useful books including the great number of both the traditions and narrations. But most of the nation's Youths are far from reaching this useful book, and know nothing about it except the title. therefore we began, after putting our trust in Allah, most high to facilitate this book as being the first step of (the tradition's facilitating project) towards making our great religious tradition very understandable to the public, and more available to them, especially in the time when the old forms and texts of the most tradition's books, written since hundreds of years, are no longer able to attract the majority of the public's attention, not because of the insufficiency of their religious content, but due to the fact that their way of presentation, and their methodology differ a lot from both the way and methodology to which the reader has been accustomed in this period.

Therefore, the contemporaries and the followers of the movement of both the ideology and age, who are very keen to address the people as much as their levels of comprehension and knowledge are concerned, should bring the concepts of the Islamic tradition, and their treasures of knowledge, very close to the minds of the nowadays people, by means of using the modern ways of both the presentation and methodology as well, provided that preserving completely all the basic ideological facts concerning such traditions which are full of the treasures veiled and concealed from the people's eyes by the gap made due to both the method and systematic ness. Our way, however, regarding the facilitation and summarization of the Attributes' book is:

Deleting the name of the chain of the transmitters due to the unnecessary need for the public to know the tradition's narrators, or to study and observe the series of unavailing ones, in an attempt to bring this tradition very close to the reader's mind before becoming lost in reading such series of transmitters who may not be very helpful to him, especially when incapable of knowing the true narrators, or of not being a specialist in the autobiographies of such men. But as for the specialists in the field of the Transmitters, they are able to check back the chain of such men in the book of the peculiarities it self, since there is no need for our book to contain all the names of the tradition's narrators, knowing that this Tendency in deleting the names of such sources is not a new one. Our religious scholars wrote very famous volumes in this manner, out of which there was a book entitled the intellects' masterpiece about the people of the house, Ahlul - Bayt'' by Ibn Sha'ba Al - Harrani, who was one of the great famous religious scholars belonging to the fourth century.

Canceling the traditions related to the jurisprudence provisions, since many other traditions contradict them in the jurisprudential books, as well as canceling the traditions which the ordinary reader may wrongly understand the prohibition of some thing un-prohibited legally, but considered unpleasant, or the obligation of some thing not indispensable but pleasant and desirable, regarding the fact that the obligatories, commands and prohibitions mentioned in the juristic traditions are not always restrictive but instructive, in most cases, and the distinction between the two groups needs a juristic specialization, where there is no need to make the unspecialist reader, in the field of understanding the jurisprudential statutory religious texts, suffer from falling into the puzzlement of distinguishing between the duty (obligatory) and the pleasant matters, or between the prohibited and unpleasant matters. Moreover these jurisprudential traditions are sufficiently studied in our books, in a way to clarify their aims and identity, as well as determining the jurisprudential provision assigned to the one responsible to apply them. The ordinary reader will not be discharged if he resorts to some of these provisions without checking back the true religious references which may give and clarify to him the true juristic correct opinion concerning his religious duty. Therefore, the matter of canceling these traditions and the jurisprudential narrations which have differences in opinions, or very difficult to understand their aims but by the diligent jurisprudential specialists, was a consideration taken on the reader's behalf, and an attempt to keep him away from misunderstanding these traditions or narrations.

Canceling the weak traditions, or those which literal interpretations can not meet with the explanations of the holy Qur'an or the other true traditions which may take into consideration the social, or place or time circumstances, if they were really correct and true, for example, those traditions distinguished by dispraising all the citizens and the people of some countries, or dispraising some craftsmen, or dispraising certain offspring, such dispraising can not be understood but by those who deserve it other than the rest, For the Qur'an will be the conclusive Judgment against all those novels and traditions {VERILY THE MOST HONoured OF YOU IN THE SIGHT OF ALLAH (IS HE WHO) IS THE MOST RIGHTEOUS OF YOU} Therefore, it is very clear for the deep-sightedness people that dealing with the true traditions belonging to the prophet and his house hold - to him and to his family may Allah's prayers be granted - doesn't submit to the applications of the discretion in legal matters, May Allah forbid, but, in fact, we should link them with their owners, or the sources, peace be upon them all, especially those traditions difficult to understand their meanings and contents as well, since our minds are delineated and definite, where as the knowledge of the family of Mohammed is extremely spacious before the definite minds which are unable to cover all their secrets and details as well, and this is all in the true traditions but not the weak ones.

Canceling all the repeated traditions, and those which imply the same content, and narrated by different sources. finally we beseech The Exalted and Glorious Allah to help the students of religion and the adorers of wisdom and knowledge to avail from this book so that our hearts and insights are highlighted by the knowledge of Mohammed and his house hold, to whom and to his family may Allah's prayers be granted. May He also make this unpretentious work as an out come of His Great Virtue as well as His Spacious Mercy, (ONE DAY EVERY SOUL WILL COME UP STRUGGLING FOR IT SELF), and He is the Sufficient and the Best Disposer of affairs. And finally praise be to Allah, in the beginning, and at the end, and prayers be upon Mohammed and his purified house hold.

As-Sayyid Muhammed Al-Mousawi LEAVING ONE EXSISTING QUALITY FOR ANOTHER PROMISED ONE : The messenger of Allah, to him and to his household may Allah's prayers be granted, said " Blessedness for who gave up his present lust to a determined unseen reward"

He said: The Transmitters of calumnies, the seekers of division among the lovers, and the faultfinders.

NO ABANDONMENT BEYOND THREE : The Messenger of Allah(SAW) said: It is not lawful for a Muslim to abandon relations with the brother Muslim beyond three nights.

- Abu Ja'far al-Baqir(A.S) said: If two believers abandon beyond three, certainly I'll be innocent from their sin after the third day. He was asked: Oh, the son of the Messenger, we know that this is the case of the oppressor, then what is the case of the oppressed one?. He(A.S) said: Why does not the oppressed go to the oppressor and say: I am the oppressor until they conciliate each other.

THE FELICITY OF MUSLIM CONSISTS IN THREE : The Messenger of Allah(SAW) said: The spaciousness of the house, the good neighbour, and comfortable carrier are the three things regarding the felicity of the Muslim.

THE TRUST WORTHY PEOPLE ARE THREE : The Messenger of Allah(SAW) said: The trust worthy people are three: Ali bin Abu Talib, Habib al-Najjar, and the believer of the pharaoh's believer.

THE PEOPLE OF AL-RAQUIM ARE THREE : The Messenger of Allah(SAW) said: three persons, who were before you, went for a journey, they were over taken by a rain-storm and they took refuge in a cave. A rock slithered and blocked the exit from the cave, they said to each other: Oh, you, I swear by the name of Allah that nothing will save you but truthfulness, so each one of you must invoke Allah-The Exalted and The Glorious - with his truthful good doings. One of them said: My Lord, you know that I hired the services of a labourer who was working on the scale of rice, but he left it and departed without taking what was due to him, I planted it and I invested it business which prospered greatly until I bought, by the difference, cows> After a long time he came to me asking for his wage, I said to him then: go to those cows and take them. He said: I deserve only the wage of the rice scale, I said: go to those cows and take them for they are from that wage. So he took them. Oh, Lord if I did so, it was because of seeking your mercy, relieve us of our distress, the stone then moved a little bit. The other said: oh, Lord you know that I had two very old parents and I used to offer them milk every night, where the members of my family were starving very much. One day I could not come back in time till my parents had fallen asleep; and I used not to feed the members of my family until my parents had enough of milk. I hated to wake them, and I disliked to go without offering them the milk when they wake up. So I waited their waking till it dawned. Oh, Lord, you know that if I had done so, it was because I fear you. Then relieve us of our distress. The rock moved until they saw the sky. The other said: oh, Lord, you know that I had a cousin girl whom I loved with the utmost love of men and women. I tried to seduce her but she refused unless I give her one hundred dinars, and I called her until she yielded herself to me, and I paid her the money where she agreed finally. So when we sat together for sexual intercourse she said: Oh servant of Allah, Fear Allah and do not open the seal unlawfully. I drew away and let her keep the money I had given her. Oh, Allah you know if I had done so, it was because I fear you, then relieve us from the distress in which we were suffering, and Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious - relieved them and went away.

THE DEAREST DEEDS TO ALLAH -THE EXALTED AND THE GLORIOUS- ARE THREE : The prophet(SAW) said: The dearest deeds to Allah are: The prayer, righteousness, and the holy struggle (al-Jihad).

PEOPLE ARE OF THREE TYPES : Kumeel bin Ziad reported; Ali bin Abu Talib(A.S) came to me and took my hand where we went outside. He sat and I sat. Then he raised his head to me saying: Oh, Kumeel, keep in mind what I'll say to you: people are of three types: A divine learned man; a seeker of knowledge on the way of safety; and riffraff rabble people who are considered as the follower of every whooper, where they toss and swing by every wind, they did not get the enlightenment of knowledge; and did not adhere to a strong foundation. Oh, Kumeel, knowledge is better than the wealth, and knowledge guards and keeps you safe; but the wealth is guarded by you, where it is lacking expenditure. Knowledge blesses spending the money. Oh, Kumeel, loving the scholar is considered a debt to whom you will be indebted through obeying him in his life, and through mentioning his fine qualities after his death. But the benefit of wealth disappears after its termination. Oh. Kumeel all treasurers of wealth died even if they are alive, but the learned people are still remaining as long as life is remaining, their possessions are absent, and their mentionings are in the hearts, here [he referred to his heart] - either for a great knowledge, or an evil knowledge used by a learned man's weapon employing both religion and This World, where he supports him self also by the evidences or the pleas of Allah against the people, and by Allah's virtues against His devotees to let them use these virtues as an intrigue before the leader of the trust, or as followers to the learned people without having any insight in their souls which triggers suspicion in their hearts when encountering the first doubtful matter. Lo! neither this nor that are the aim, because they are either greedy ones for pleasures, easy to lead; or that who is very fond of treasuring the wealth, and not one of the religion's protectors, and he is very much like the grazing female camels. Knowledge, there by dies by the death of its bad carriers. Oh, Lord, May you not clear the earth out of he who has a strong plea or a hidden truth in order not to traverse those pleas and evidences of Allah, so how many are they, and how can they be bound?. They are those small in numbers, and of great serious power; by them Allah would preserve His pleas until they deposit these evidences at thier counter parts, and palnt them in the hearts of their analogous. by them Knowledge rushes upon the essence of conditions, where they begin to assimilate the essense of certainty and facts both; they win over what the affluent people found it difficult; they entertain what the ignorants yearned for, and they live This World by their bodies only where their souls have been adhersed to what is begond heaven. Oh Kumeel, those are the successors of Allah, and the callers of His religion, Ha; Ha; How much I am longing to see them, and I invoke Allah's forgiveness to both me and you.

PEOPLE WORSHIP ALLAH - THE EXALTED AND THE GLORIOUS - ACCORDING TO THREE ASPECTS : Al-sadiq Ja'far bin Muhammed(A.S) said: People worship Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious according to three aspects, where the first type of them worship Allah out of craving aftreer His rewaed, and that called the worship of the keen people or that is the greediness, the second type of them worship Him out of fearing His Hell, and that is the worship of the slaves or that is the Terror. But I worship Him out of love for him - The Exalted and The Glorious - and that is the worship of the honorable people, and that is the peace, for Allah says: }And they will be secure From terror that day(89-27), and in His saying Say: If you do love Allah, Follow me: Allah will love you and forgive you your sins; for Allah is Oft - Forgiving, Most Merciful. So he who loves Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious - Allah will love him, for he whom Allah loves, he will be amongst the secured people.

THE LEADER OF THE BELIEVERS(A.S) STIPULATED THE ADDITION OF THREE QUALITIES : Ali bin Aby Talib(A.S) when he was invited by some one to have a meal, he said(A.S) to him: You should guarantee three qualities. The host said: What are they, chief of the faithful?. He said: Do not admit any thing from out side; Do not save any thing away from me regarding the inside of the house; and do not aggrieve your children the host said: It is for you. Then Ali bin Abu Talib(A.S) agreed.

PEOPLE OF KNOWLEDGE ARE OF THREE TYPES : The chief of the believers(A.S) said: The seekers of this knowlege are of three types, you should know them by their aspects: A type of them learns knowledg for hypocrisy and ignorance; another type learns for both deception and audacity, and the last type learns knowledge for both jurisprudence and mind. So he who is the owner of both hypocrisy and ignorance can be seen as harmful and quarrel some to people in the assemblies of knowledge, where he wore the mask of reverence, and abandoned piety, so Allah crushed his mediastinum, and cut his tongue. As for the second type of learners, who is characterized by both deception and audacity, he can deceive those similar to him, and he is seen very humble towards the rich people other than those before them. So he can digest their sweets, and he is the destructive of his religion. Allah, there fore, blinded his insight, and moved him away from the graces of the true learned people. And that who learns knowledge to comprehend both juriprudence and mind, he is seen depressed and melancholic; since he sat up the whole gloomy hight to learn, Tipped and wrapped with his cloak, working, fearing, frightened from every one except from any jurist brother, where Allah consolidates his basis, and will secure him on the Day of Resurrection.

ANY ONE WHO BECOMES AN OPPONENT TO THREE TYPES OF PEOPLE, CERTAINLY HE'LL BE DISGRACED : Abu Abdullah(A.S) said: Any one, who oppeses three types of people, will be disgraced: the father, the ruler, and the antagonist.

PEOPLE ARE DIVIDED INTO THREE TYPES REGARDING THEIR POINT OF VIEWS ABOUT THE FATE : Abu Abdullah(A.S) said: People are considered of three types regarding their points of view about the fate: A man claims that Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious - compelled people to commit sins, so he is unjust to Allah concerning His determination, so he is an infidel; a man also claims that the people are authorized the matter of fate, so he, by this, ridicules Allah's power, and he is an infidel. And a man says: Allah The Exalted and The Glorious - charged the people with what they can bear, and didn't charge them with what is above their capacity, so when he does good he praises Allah, and when he does evil he invokes Allah's forgiveness, where this is the true Muslim, and Allah will be the supporter.

PART 4- ON FOUR-NUMBERED CHARACTERISTICS

THE SAYING OF THE PROPHET(SAW): I AM THE INTERCESSOR FOR THEM ON THE DAY OF RESURRECTION : The Messenger of Allah(SAW) said: Four persons for whom I'll be the intercessor on the Day of Resurrection , even if they committed the sins of the whole people of earth: the supporter of my house hold; the servant of their requirements when they are in need to him; He who loves them either by his heart or by his tongue, and he who defends them by his hand.

THERE ARE FOUR KINDS OF PEOPLE WHOSE SUPPLICATION WILL NOT BE REJECTED : The Messenger of Allah(SAW) said in his will to Ali: Oh, Ali, four kinds of people whose supplication will not be rejected: A just Imam; the supplication of a father for his son; the supplication of a man for his brother behind his back (in his absence), and the supplication of the oppressed person, where Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious - says: I swear by My Honor and Majesty to help you even after a long period.

THE CONSTITUTION OF THE RELIGION CONSISTS IN FOUR : The leader of the believers(A.S) said: The constitution of the religion consists in four: A well speaker learned man who acts upon it; A wealthy man who doesn't withhold his generosity against the servants of Allah's religion; A poor man who doesn't sell his afterlife for This World, and an ignorant who does not feel insolent against seeking the knowledge. So when the learned man conceals his knowledge; the wealthy man with holds his money, the poor sells his after life for This World, and the ignorant begins to feel insolent against seeking the knowledge, This World will not back ward, so do not be deceived by the great number of mosques, or the different bodies of a clan It is said: Oh, leader of the believers, How life will be then at that time?. He said: deal with them outwardly, and differ with them inwardly. For a person is responsible for what he acquires, and he associates with whom he loves. And above all of this you should wait and hope for the relief of Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious .

THE CLAIMS OF PEOPLE - IN THIS EVANESCENT WORLD - ARE FOUR : Al-Sadiq Ja'far bin Mohammed(A.S) said: the claims of people - in this evanescent World - are four; richness, meekness, carelessness, and honor (superiority or power). So as for richness, it is found in contentment, and he who asks for it in the presence of richness, he will not find this richness; meekness is found in humorous sense, so he who asks for it out of his antipathetic sense, he will not find it; where as carelessness is found due to unemployment (idleness), so he who asks for it when there is a lot of work, he will not find it; and honor (or superiority or power) is found regarding the service of the creator; so he who claims it regarding the service of the created human being, he will not find it.

THERE WERE FOUR RINGS FOR THE LEADER OF THE FAITHFUL(A.S) : Ali (A.S) used to put four kinds of Rings in his fingers, where he used them to sanction or to stamp a document: for they had been characterized by four engravings; the first one was made of corundum, for his nobleness; the second was from turquoise for his triumph; the third was from the Chinese Metal for his strength, and the fourth was from agate for his incantation. The engraving of corundum held the term No God but Allah, The Clear Truthful Lord, where as the engraving of Turquoise held the term Allah is the truthful Lord; the engraving of the Chinese Metal was Honor is all to Allah, and the engraving of the agate was what Allah willed, No power but in Allah, I invoke Allah's forgiveness.

THE IMAM IS IDENTIFIED BY FOUR QUALITIES : Al-Harith bin al-Mugirrah al-Nassri reported I said to Abu Abdullah(A.S); With what the owner of this order is known, He said: By the calmness; the sobriety the knowledge and the injunction. Aby AL-Jaroud said, Abu Ja'far(A.S) as saying; I said to him: may I be given as ransom to you, If your learned person of Ahlul-bayt died, then how, those who come after him, will be known? He said: By guidance, silence, and acknowledging the virtues and thanks of the prophet's household, and no question he is asked, but he will certainly answer it concerning these three qualities.

THE SAYING OF THE PROPHET(SAW): I WAS PREFERRED DUE TO FOUR QUALITIES : The messenger of Allah(SAW) said: I was preferred with a high rank due to four qualities I made the whole earth as a mosque and as a purification for my nation, so any one of my people who wants to pray, and couldn't find water for ablution, he should use the earth for it is made for him as a mosque and as a purification as well, and I was given victory by the awe which power is measured as one month of marching on foot; where I am characterized by having this awe between my both hands; booties are considered lawful, and I was Sent to all the people of my nation.

And no one who said: oh Allah, May you give me as companions of the lustrous beautiful eyes nymphs; they certainly hear him and say: oh, Lord some body paid his addresses to us and engaged us, so, May you marry us to him. And No one resort to Allah to keep him away from Hell, certainly Hell will say: oh, Lord, May you protect him from me.

THE CAVALIERS ARE FOUR ON THE DAY OF REXURRECTION :
Ibn

Abbas reported: The Messenger of Allah(SAW) went outside someday grasping the hand of Ali(A.S) saying: Oh, the clan of al-Anssar, oh, the clan of Hashim, oh the clan of Abdul Mutalib, I am Mohammed, I am the Messenger of Allah, except that I was created from a blessed heap of earth formed of four people, My house hold: I, Ali, Hamza and Ja'far. A man asked: Oh, Messenger of Allah, are they considered cavaliers with you on the Day of Resurrection ?. He concealed His displeasure inside His disobedience, so do not deem any thing little concerning His disobedience, for probably His displeasure meets His disobedience by chance. From where you do not know; He concealed His answer inside invoking Him, so do not deem little of supplicating Him, since probably His answer meets His supplication from where you do not know; and He concealed His holy man inside His devotee, so do not deem little a devotee of Allah's devotees. since probably this devotee is His holy man from where you do not know.

THE SAYING OF THE PROPHET(SAW) DO NOT HATE FOUR THINGS, SINCE THEY BELONG TO FOUR OTHERS : The Messenger of Allah(SAW) said: Do not hate four things since they belong to four others: Do not hate cold(flue) for it is considered a protection against leprosy; and do not hate boils or furuncles since they are a protection against leprosy; do not hate conjunctivitis since it is a protection against blindness, and do not hate coughing since it is a protection against himiplegia.

Then he(A.S) said: The illegitimate son is characterized by signs one of which is his hatred towards us, we the household of the prophet(SAW); the second sign is his tendency towards the unlawful matters from which he has been created and formed; the third sign is his tendency to deem little the religion or ridiculing it, the fourth sign is his evil backbiting towards people and his evil presence caused to his brethren due to his existence amongst them, unless there is a man who shares with him these signs and who was not born on his father's bed, or he whose mother born him when she was in her menstruation.

BRIGADE : Jabir bin Abdullah al-Ansarri reported, the Messenger of Allah(SAW) as saying: By him in whose hand my soul is, I never have ordered Ali at all in a brigade to the battle, without seeing Gabriel(A.S) accompanied by seventy thousand angels on his right side; Michael is on his left side accompanied by seventy thousand angels; the angel of death is in front of him; and a cloud above him is sending its shade to protect him until he is awarded the best victory.

WHAT A WONDER IT IS TO SEE HE WHO IS STARTLED BY FOUR THINGS, AND HOW HE IS NOT STARTLED OTHER FOUR THINGS : Al-Sadiq Ja'far bin Mohammed(A.S) said: What a wonder It is to see he who is startled by four things, how he is not startled for the four others, so he how is not startled from the saying of Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious - For us Allah sufficient, And He is the best Disposer of affairs, for I heard Allah - The Glorious and The Mighty - saying after it: }And they returned with Grace and Bounty from Allah; No harm Ever touched them, and I wondered from he who became grieved, how he is not startled when he hears the saying of Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious -; There is no God but Thou: Glory to thee: I was indeed wrong!, for I heard Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious - saying after it: So We listened to him: And delivered him from Distress: And Thus We do Deliver those who have faith. And I wondered from he who was deceived, how he is not startled by Allah's saying: My (own) affair I commit To Allah: for Allah (ever) Watches over His servants. For I heard Allah - Glorified and Holified - saying after it: Then Allah saved him from every ill that They planned against him; and I wondered from he who wants This World and its embellishment, how he is not startled by Allah's - The Blessed and The Exalted - saying: Allah's Will (Be done) There is no power but with Allah, for I heard Allah - Glory be to His name - saying after it: }If thou Does see me less than thee in Wealth and sons, it may be that my Lord Will give me some thing Better than thy garden.

FOUR PERSONS HARBORED THE TESTIMONY ON BEHALF OF THE LEADER OF THE BELIEVER(A.S) REGARDING HIS LEADERSHIP, WHERE ALLAH- THE EXALTED AND THE GLORIOUS - ANSWERED HIS SUPPLICATION AGAINST THEM : Ja'bir bin Abdullah al-Ansarri reported: Ali bin Abu Talib(A.S) delivered us a speech, where he thanked and praised Allah first, then said: Oh, people, there are a group of four men of the Messenger's(SAW) associates, amongst them are: Anas bin Malik, Burra' bin 'Azib, al-Ash'ath bin Qays

al-Kindi, and Khalid bin Yazzid al-Bajli, who are in front of our shrine. Anas came to me and said: oh Anas, If you heard the Messenger of Allah(SAW) saying: He whose leader is I, Ali will be certainly his leader then you concealed your testimony now regarding my right in the leadership, so may Allah not take you unto Him until He afflicts you with leprosy which can not be covered by a turban; Oh, you Ash'ath, if you heard the Messenger of Allah(SAW) saying He whose leader is I, Ali will be his leader, oh, Lord May you support he who is loyal to him, and May you antagonize he who antagonizes him, then you have not told your testimony today regarding my right of leadership, May Allah not take you unto Him until He afflicts your two eyes with blindness. Oh, you Kalid bin Yazzid, if you heard the Messenger of Allah(SAW) saying: He whose leader is I then you haven't told your testimony today regarding my right of leadership, May Allah not take you unto him until you die the death of the pre-Islamic period; Oh, you Burra' bin 'Azib, if you heard the Messenger of Allah(SAW) saying He whose leader is I, Ali then you have not told your testimony today regarding my right of the leadership, May Allah not take you unto Him until you abandon it. Jabir bin Abdullah al-Ansarri said: I swear by the name of Allah that I saw Anas bin Malik afflicted with leprosy covering him where his turban could not veil it, and I saw al-Ash'ath bin Qays afflicted with blindness, where he said: praised be Allah Who made the supplication of the leader of the believers Ali bin Abu Talib(A.S) befalls upon me and inflicts me with blindness in This World, far better for me than he supplicated against me to be tortured on the Day of Resurrection , where I'll bear the severe Torture then. As for Khalid bin Yazzid he died where his family wanted to bury him in his house, and he was buried then, and Kinda heard about his death where she brought the horses as well as the camels and injured them at his door, so he died that kind of death of the pre-Islamic period or)Al-Jahilia death). As for al-Burra' bin 'Azib, Mu'aawwia appointed him as a ruler in Yemen where he died over there, and from where he emigrated.

FOUR QUALITIES ARE CHARACTERIZED BY HAVING WHAT IMPLIES SECURITY IN THIS WORLD; AND FOUR WORDS IMPLY THE SECURITY FOR THE AFTER HEREAFTER: Qabissa bin Mukharik al-Hilali came to the Messenger of Allah(SAW) who greeted and welcomed him, then he said: What brought you Qabissa?. He said: Oh, Messenger of Allah, I became old, my strength became weak, My family became sick of me; and I am incapacitated to hold things I used to bear in the past, so teach me some words from which Allah let me avail, in order to be rewarded, for I became forgetful. He said: What did you say Qabissa?. He repeated what he said; then the Messenger asked him: what did you say?, then Qabissa repeated what he said. Until the Messenger(SAW) said: Nothing around you; including the stones, the trees, the animals, but cried asking Allah's Mercy for you. Oh, Qabissa, keep by heart what I say: Try to recite Thrice when you pray the moon prayer Hallowed be Allah, and all Praise is due to Him, Hallowed be Allah the Great, and no Might and power to resist evil but that of Allah, as words dedicated for This World. So if you recite these words they will be your protector from blindness, leprosy, and hemiplegia. As for your after life recite Allah guide me by yourself, support me out of your virtue, spread your Mercy upon me, and descend upon me your blessings. The Messenger continued to recite them, and Qabissa counted them on his fingers. Abu Bakr and Umar said: Your associate has hardly counted them on his fingers or grasped them firmly - they meant the four words or terms - the Messenger of Allah(SAW) said: If he brings them with him on the Day of Resurrection and never abandons them deliberately, four gates of Paradise will be opened wide for him where he can enter from any one he wants.

PEOPLE RECEIVED THE SPEECH OF THE PROPHET(SAW) ABOUT FOUR WHICH HAVE NO FIVE : Salim bin Qays al-Hilali reported: I said to the leader of the believers(A.S): Oh, leader of the believer, I heard from Salman; al-Mikdad, and Abu Dharr some interpretations of the Qur'an and some traditions of the Messenger of Allah(SAW) different from what the people transmitted, then I heard from you your confirmation concerning what I heard and saw many interpretations of the Qur'an as well as the traditions of the prophet(SAW), where you differ with them regarding them; and you claim at the same time that this is all wrong, do you see that the people saying untruthful things and attribute it to the prophet(SAW) deliberately, and they explain the Qur'an in accordance with their tendencies or points of view?. He said: Ali came to me and said: You asked, and I am now understand the answer, there are in the hands of the people both rightful and wrongful matters, truthful and false, abrogated and the verses which abrogate other verses or the abrogators, general and special, established and unestablished, fancy and real matters, so lies had been attributed to the prophet(SAW) when he was alive till he stood up to address the people saying: oh, people lies have been said and attributed to me; so he who attributes to me false sayings or lies, he must then expect his dwell in Hell. And despite all of these lies had been said and attributed to him after his death. Verily, the speech or the tradition that you heard came to you from four sources, and not five: A hypocrite who pretends that he is faithful and simulated by Islam, where he doesn't feel regretful or embarrassed to tell lies and attribute them to the Messenger of Allah(SAW), so if people knew that he was liar, they would not have accepted or believed what he said, but they trusted in him and said: This man associated with the Messenger(SAW), saw and heard him, so they accepted and believed in what he said without knowing his reality. For Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious - had told him about such hypocrite people and described them as:}When thou lookest At them, their exteriors please thee; and when they speak, thou listenest to their words{(4 - 63). They lived after him and came closer to the leaders of aberration and the callers to Hell with false claiming and lyings where they appointed them to direct their matters, and gave them the authority to rule the people, and they raised their prestige in This World, for people, verily, are always with both the kings as well as This World except whom Allah protected, and this was the first of four people. There was also a man who heard some thing from the Messenger of Allah(SAW), but he did not memorize it or understand it correctly, or he imagined other interpretations, but he did not deliberately tell lies, where he transmitted it and narrated it: 'I heard it from the Messenger of Allah(SAW) as it was, so if the Muslims knew that it was false, they wouldn't have accepted it; or if he knew that it was false, he would have refused it. The third type of people was he who heard the Messenger of Allah(SAW) saying some thing, then he advised (ordered) the people to act upon what he said, and he ordered them later to refuse it, where he didn't know or heard the Messenger forbidding some thing, then ordering the people to act upon it, so he memorized the abrogated but he did not memorize the abrogated for if he knew that it was abrogated he would have refused it, and if the Muslims knew that it was completely abrogated they would have refused it. The fourth type of people was he who didn't tell lies and attribute them to the Messenger(SAW), for he abominated lying, due to his fearing of Allah, and due to Glorifying his Messenger(SAW), But he was not inattentive, since he also memorized and kept what he heard correctly, and told exactly what he heard without any addition or decrease regarding it, and he knew the abrogated and the verses which abrogate other verses (abrogators), then he acted upon what the latter had prescribed and refused the abrogated speech, since the order of the prophet was very much like the Qur'an: abrogated and and the verses which abrogate other verses; general and special; established and unestablished. The speech of the prophet(SAW) probably possessed two meanings, or a general speech, or a special speech like the Qur'an, for Allah- The Exalted and The Glorious - said: }So take what the Messenger Assigns to you, and deny Your selves that which he With holds from you{. So, who ever didn't know or understand what Allah and His Messenger(SAW) had meant - since not all the Messenger's(SAW) associates could understand completely or inquired about the exact meanings of what he said - so he would wrongly mix between the interpretations - some of them used to ask the prophet(SAW) but could not understand or inquire the exact meanings of what he said or explained, to the extent that they wished to see a bedouin coming in, in order to listen to him when asking the Messenger about some matters and to listen to the Messenger's answers as well. I used to come to the Messenger of Allah(SAW) only once during the day or during the evening, where we started talking alone about different matters and subjects, for people knew that he never used to receive any one alone to discuss with him different subjects as he used to do with me, and he(SAW) usually, or most of the times used to come to my house for these matters. But if I went to one of his houses, he stayed alone with me away from his women, or if we met together in my house, his daughter Fatima would stick around without leaving either him or our children. So if I asked him, he answered me directly until I had nothing to ask, then he began the speech with me instead. Knowing that there was not rarely any evidence or Sura of the Qur'an, which had been descended on him, without discussing it with me or it had been given to me to read it, memorize it, and write it my self, or I had been taught its interpretation, its explanation, its abrogated and and the verses which abrogate other verses (abrogators) both, its established and unestablished meanings, its special and general matters. Where he supplicated Allah to help me understand, and memorize it. So neither I forgot any evidence of Allah's Book Nor any knowledge he taught me or I had wrote it, since he supplicated Allah for me, of what he supplicated; and he didn't leave any thing of what Allah had taught him concerning lawful and unlawful matters, or any thing related to the enjoyment of what was good and forbiddance of what was evil, or will be in the future, or any holy books descended on those before him regarding any matter which required a complete obedience and that which required forbiddance of any disobedience, but he had taught me it and I kept it, or memorized it completely without forgetting any letter of it, then he put his hand on my chest and supplicated Allah to increase my knowledge, comprehension, wisdoms, and light, I said: 'Oh, Messenger of Allah, may you be given my father and mother as ransom, I have not forgotten or missed any thing since you supplicated your Lord for me, and I didn't leave any thing without documenting it. Do you feel afraid for me of forgetfulness in the future?', He said: No, I am not afraid for you neither of forgetfulness Nor of ignorance.

-Abu Ja'far(A.S) reported: the leader of the believers(A.S) as saying: Who ever does what has been done to him, he has, due to this, rewarded, and whoever has been deemed weak, or ridiculed, he will be considered grateful, and who is grateful, he will be generous, and he who knows that what he has done, verily, he has done it for himself without decreasing the people's righteousness, or increasing their love. So do not ask people gratefulness for what you have done concerning your interest or your protection to your honor, and be informed that he who seeks your sustainance, he, by this, humiliates himself before you, so be generous not to dismiss him without responding to his need.

- Abu Ja'Far(A.S) reported: I heard him saying: This World is considered as a wealth, so if you have obtained any thing out of it in favor of you, or for the benefit of you, it will help you to overcome your weakness; and if you haven't obtained anything out of it to sustain you, it will overcome you even if you dedicated all your strength to avoid it. So whoever becomes desperate of the past, he will comfort his body, and whoever feels content with what has been portioned to him, he will feel comfortable.

It is the month of endurance, and the endurance's reward will be Paradise, and it is the month of condolence; during which Allah provides more for the believer, and if any one breaks the fast of a fasting believer, he will have with Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious - the reward equivalent to the emancipation of a slave, and a forgiveness for his past sins - it is said: Oh, Messenger of Allah, the Majority of us can not afford to feed the fasting man. commanded me also to love the poors, and to be very close to them; he commanded me to say the truth even if it is bitter; he commanded me to join the ties of My kinship relations even if they are broken; he commanded me not to be afraid despite the reproach of the reproacher regarding the Matters of Allah; and he commanded me to say often 'No Might, and No power but in Allah The Exalted and the Great' since it belongs to the treasures of the Paradise.

THERE ARE SEVEN QUALITIES FOR WHICH ANY ONE WHO IS CHARACTERIZED BY THEM, HE REACHED THEN THE LEVEL OF FAITH'S ESSENTIAL NATURE : 'Ali bin Abu Talib(A.S) reported, the prophet(SAW) as saying in his injunction to him: 'Ali, there are seven qualities for which any one who is chararacterizes by them, he reached then the faith's essential nature and the gates of the poradise opened for performing ablution observance of prayer. payment of Zakat; restraining his anger, suppressing his tongue; asking Allah's forgiveness concerning his sins; and showing sincere conduct towards the prophet's house hold.

WHO EVER FASTS DURING RAMADAN, SEVEN QUALITIES WILL BECOME OBLIGATORY UPON HIM : 'Ali bin Abu Talib(A.S) regarding a long speech, he reported, the Messenger of Allah(SAW) as saying: No believer fasts during Ramadan out of faith, seeking the reward of his Lord, but Allah - The Blessed and The Exalted - will make seven qualities obligatory upon him: The first of which will purify his body from all the unlawful things (sins), the second of which he will be brought closer to Allah's - The Exalted and The Glorious - Mercy, the third of which he will be forgiven from the sin of his father Adam; the fourth of which Allah will relieve him from the agony of death; the fifth of which he will be secured from voth hunger and thirst on The Day of Resurrection, the sixth of which Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious - will feed him from the Paradise's good things, the sventh of which Allah will grant him freedom from Hell, he said; You are Truthful Muhammed.

THERE ARE SEVEN TYPES OF PEOPLE WHO WILL RECEIVE THE MOST GRIEVOUS TORMENT ON THE DAY OF RESURRECTION : Abu Abdullah(A.S) said: I heard him saying: The people who will receive the most grievous torment on The Day of Resurrection are five; the first of them is the son of Adam who killed his brother; the (Nammrud) who disputed with Abraham regarding the Matters of His Lord: two men of the people of Israel who made their folk jewish, then they made them christian; Pharaoh who said: I am your exalted good; and two men of this nation.

TWO SURAS SAY: HE IS ALLAH THE ONE AND ONLY SAY: O YE THAT REJECT FAITH ARE TO BE READ ON SEVEN OCCASIONS : Abu Abdullah(A.S) said: Hold fast to read .He is Allah the One and Only... .and O ye that reject Faith on seven occasions: when performing the two Rak'ahs before dawn, the two Rak'ahs at noon, the two Rak'ahs after the sunset, the two Rak'ahs at the beginning of the night prayer; the two Rak'ahs of the (Ihram) or (the ceremonies of Umra and Hajj - Pilgrimage); the two Rak'ahs of the dawn, and the two Rak'ahs when performing the circumambulation or the (Tawaf) around the Ka'ba.

A PRUDENT FOLLOWED ANOTHER ONE FROM A DISTANCE MEASURED AS SEVEN HUNDRED PARASANGS REGARDING SEVEN WORDS : Abu Abdullah(A.S) said: A prudent followed another one from a distance seven hundred parasangs regarding seven words, so when he reached him he asked: 'what is higher than the Sky; more spacious than the earth, richer than the sea, harder than the rock, warmer than the fire, colder than the frosty wind, and heavier than the steadfast mountains'?, he answered: 'O. you! Truth is higher than the sky, justice is more spacious than the earth, soul contentment is richer than the sea, the heart of the infidel is harder than the rock; the avaricious and the greedy men are warmer than the fire; despair of Allah's soul is colder than the frosty wind, and false accusation against the innocent person is heavier than the steadfast mountains.

SEVEN TYPES OF PEOPLE CORRUPT THEIR DEEDS : Abu Abdullah(A.S) said: Seven types of people corrupt their deeds: The lenient man who has abundant knowledge, but he is unknown or not mentioned regarding his knowledge; the lenient who lends his money to every lying dissolute person who denies what he has borrowed; the lenient person who feels secured towards him who has both treachery and deceit; the rude person who has no mercy; the mother who doesn't conceal the secrets away from her son, and reveals it, the one whose brethren are faster than him to the Imams (religious scholars or leaders), the one who remains arguing and disputing with his brother.

PROSTRATION ON SEVEN IS CONSIDERED GREATER : Abu Ja'far(A.S) said: Prostration on seven is greater: the front, the two palms, the two knees, the two thumbs, and the nose which is compelled to touch the ground, as for the duties they are seven, and as for compelling the nose to touch the ground, it is considered one of the prophets' measurements (sunna).

THE MESSENGER OF ALLAH(SAW) CURSED SEVEN TYPES OF PEOPLE : Abu Abdullah(A.S) reported, the Messenger of Allah(SAW) as saying: I cursed seven types of people whom Allah cursed, knowing that every prophet's supplication, who was before me, was answered, they asked: 'who are they', he said: He who makes addition in ALLAH's Book expands the religion of Allah, he who controverts Allah's predestination, he who abandons my path (or my sunna), he who deems lawful the matters of my posterity which Allah forbade, he who rules by force those whom Allah has cherished to humiliate them, or to cherish those whom Allah has humiliated; he who possesses alone the booties of the Muslims and deems such booties lawful for him, and he who deems unlawful what Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious - deemed lawful.

THE BELIEVER HAS SEVEN RIGHTS UPON THE OTHER BELIEVER : Al-Ma'ali bin Khuneis said: I asked Abu Abdullah(A.S): what rights has the believer upon the other one?, he said: Seven rights and duties, where they hardly contain any right or duty excluding away any right without being a duty upon him, but if he has not applied it he will be out of Allah's religion and obedience both, and he has no portion regarding Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious -, I said: May I be given as ransom to you, tell me what are they?, He said: Woe unto you, Ma'ali, I feel pitiful towards you, I am afraid that you may lose them unmemorized, or you know them but you do not act upon them, I said: No Might but with Allah, he said: The easiest of them is to wish for the other what you like for your self, to hate for him what you hate for yourself; the second right upon you is to meet his needs and to ask his pleasure without disobeying him, the third right upon you is to sustain him both by your wealth and by your power (hand, leg and tongue), the fourth right is to be his eye; his guide; his mirror; and his shirt, the fifth right is to avoid becoming sated where he is hungry, to avoid dressing where he is without clothes, and to avoid quenching your thirst where he is thirsty, the sixth right is when you have a woman and a servant where he has neither a woman nor a servant, so you should send him your servant to wash his clothes, to prepare his meals, to prepare his mattress, since all of these are considered duties upon you; and the seventh right is to fulfil his Oath, to answer his call, to escort his funeral, to visit him when ill; to dedicate your strength in order to meet his needs; to make him avoid reaching the situation where he begins to beg you, without helping him first to meet his needs, and when you did so, you, there by , joined your guardianship with both his and Allah's - The Exalted and The Glorious - Guardianships.

- Ja'far bin Mohammed(A.S) peace be upon them both, said: The believer has seven rights and duties upon the other one concerning the Allah's - The Exalted and The Glorious - command, where Allah will question him some day about them: Evaluating him in his presence, loving him by heart, condoling him due to the loss of his wealth (or sustaining him by wealth), wishing for him what he likes for himself, prohibiting slandering him; visting him when ill, escorting his funeral, and saying good things after his death.

THE INFIDEL EATS WITH SEVEN BELLIES : Abu Abdullah(A.S) reported, the Messenger of Allah(SAW) as saying: The believer eats with one belly, and the infidel eats with seven bellies.

SEVEN QUALITIES ARE COMBINED TOGETHER IN A BELIEVER : The leader of the faithful(A.S) said: The believer is he whose earnings are lawful, whose disposition is good, whose inward is sound, he who spends the surplus of his wealth, he who conceals the surplus of his speech, he who keeps the people safe from his evil doings, he who treats the people as he likes them to treat him.

THE BELIEVER BELONGS TO SEVEN RANKS : Abu Abdullah(A.S) said: The believers belong to seven ranks: He whose rank motivated him to ask of Allah's - The Exalted and The Glorious - favors and virtues, where this rank will not allow him to jump from it into the other's rank; some of the believers are Allah's witnesses upon His creatures; some of them are the excellent pedigreed ones; some of them are tried or the examined people; some of them are the supporters, some of them are the people of endurance, some of them are the people of piety; and some of them are the people of pardon and forgiveness.

SEVEN TYPES OF THE (LEARNED PEOPLE) ARE IN HELL : Abu Abdullah(A.S) said: Verily, one of the learned people like to keep his knowledge concealed and not revealed to any one, so he is in the first storey in Hell; one of the learned people will show disdain when he preaches, so he is in the second storey in Hell; one of the learned people holds to publish his knowledge amongst those who have both wealth and honor, where he holds that he has no position among the poors, so he is in the third storey in Hell; one of the learned people becomes one of the tyrants and oppressive rulers with his knowledge, and when part of his speech is refused or when he insists on some thing he becomes angry, so he is in the fourth storey in Hell; one of the learned people asked for the speeches of both the jews and the christians abundantly to enhance and support his evidances during his speech, so he is in the fifth storey in Hell; one of the learned people appoints him self as the source of the religious opinions (Fatwa), where he says; 'Ask me' and he may not be able to know even one letter, and Allah does not love the over acted boastful people, so he is in the sixth storey in Hell; and one of the learned people who asks for knowledge to publish it among the people of both magnanimity and mind in order to ask them some thing in return, so he is in the sevnth storey in Hell.

ALLAH ESTABLISHED ISLAM ACCORDING TO SEVEN SHARES :
 Ammar bin Abu al-Ahwas said: I said to Abu Abdullah(A.S): 'we have clans praising the leader of the faithful(A.S), and preferring him upon all the people, where they don't describe what we describe regarding your favour, so shall we watch over them?', he said: 'Yes, all, Is it true that Allah owns what His Messenger doesn't own, and the Messenger of Allah has ,regarding Allah, what we do not have, and we have what you do not, and you have what others do not have?, verily, Allah - The Blessed and The Exalted - has established Islam according to seven shares: Endurance, truthfulness, certainty, contentment; faithfulness; knowledge, and leniency, then he portioned all these amongst the people, so he whom Allah granted him all these shares, his faith is perfect and possible; then he portioned; to some people, one share, the others two shares, the others three shares, to others four shares; the others five then six then seven shares, so do not let that whose protion is one share to bear two shares, neither to that whose portion is two shares to bear three shares, nor to that whose shares are three to bear four ones, Nor to that whose shares are four to bear five ones, nor to that whose shares are five to bear six shares, where you will over burden them and make them alienate your orders; but you should be merciful with them and you should ease the access, and I shall give you an example to take a lesson out of it: There was a Muslim whose neighbour was an infidel; the latter used to accompany the believer, where the latter began to love him and began to praise (ornament Islam) to him and endeared it to the infidel until he became a Muslim, and one day the believer came to accompany him outside his house to the Mosque to offer the prayer of dawn with him in the congregation, and when they finished, the believer said: If only we sat mentioning Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious - till the sun rises, and he sat with him, then he asked him: If only you learned the "Qur'an till the sun sets, and if only you fasted this day it would be better for you, so he sat with him and fasted with him till they prayed the noon and the after noon prayer, then he said: If only you endured till we pray the sunset and evening prayer, it would be better for you, and he stayed with him till they prayed the sunset and the evening prayer, then they rose up where he was completely exhausted, for the believer made him bear what was beyond his capacity; so when the following day came he went to him hoping to ask him the same thing that was of yesterday, he knocked the door then said: 'Get out in order to go to the Mosque', the other one said: 'leave me, this religion is very tough I can't bear it', So avoid over burden them, do not you know that the Umayyad leadership ruled the people by sword, abusement, and oppression, and that our leadership ruled others by Mercy; coalescence, sobriety; caution; good company, piety, and diligence, so try to awaken the people's desires regarding your religion, and what you are in connection with now.

ALLAH - THE EXALTED AND THE GLORIOUS - GRANTED HIS MESSENGER(SAW) SEVEN QUALITIES : Al-Hassan bin Ali bin Abu Talib(A.S) said, out of his long speech: A group of jews came to the Messenger of Allah(SAW), the most learned one of them asked him about some matters, amongst which he asked: 'Tell us about the seven qualities which Allah granted you short of all the prophets, and He gave your people short of all the nations?', the prophet said: 'Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious - gave me the first Surah of the Qur'an (the opening),(AL-Fateha) or the chapter of Praise; the call or summon to the congregational prayers; the congregation in the mosque; the Friday; the funeral's prayer; raising the voice in three prayers; the permission given to my nation regarding illness and journey; and intercession for those who committed the major sins'. The jewish asked: 'You are truthful Mohammed, so what is the reward for him who reads the Opening Surah of the Qur'an?', the Messenger of Allah(SAW) said: 'He who reads the opening Surah of the Qur'an, Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious - will give him regarding each one of these evidences descended from Heaven

a reward of reciting it; as for the call for prayer, the announcers (or the callers) will be gathered with the prophets; the trust worthy people; the martyrs; and the righteous people of my nation. As for the congregation, the lines of those who perform the prayers in congregation; on earth; are very much like the lines of angels in the Heaven, for one Rak'ah kneed in the congregation equals twenty four Rakahs done in the other common prayer, and each Rakah of the congregational prayers is dearer to Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious - than forty year worship as for the Friday, Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious - will gather the first creatures and the last creatures to judge them, so no believer walked to the mosque seeking the congregational prayer but Allah will relieve upon him the terrors of The Day of Resurrection, then He will reward him the Paradise; as for raising the voice in three prayers, the flames of fire will be kept away from him in the same amount of his voice's loudness in prayers; and he will pass the path, and will be given the delight till he enters the Paradise; as for the sixth, Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious - will relieve the terrors of The Day of Resurrection upon my nation, as Allah mentioned in the Qur'an, and no believer prays the funeral's prayer but Allah will make Paradise incumbent upon him, unless he is either a hypocrite or a disobedient to his parents, and as for my intercession, it will be for those who committed the major sins save the infidel or the oppressive people'.

He said: 'You are truthful Mohammed, and I testify that there is no god but Allah, and that you are His devotee and His Messenger, the seal of the prophets, the leader of the pious people, and the Messenger of the Lord of the Worlds'. So when he became a Muslim, and his religion became stronger, he wrote on a white parchment what the prophet(SAW) had mentioned. He asked then: 'Messenger of Allah, I swear by He who sent you with the Truth as a prophet, I haven't copied these statements but from the Tablets which Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious - wrote them to Moses bin 'Immran, and I read in the Torah your virtue till I suspected in it Mohammed, and I used to obliterate your name from the Torah since forty years ago, and whenever I obliterate it I find it once again confirmed in it, and I read in the Torah that such matters will not be established but by you short of the others, to the extent that when you establish such qualities, Gabriel will be soon on your right side, and Michael will be on your left side, the Messenger of Allah(SAW) said: 'You are true, this is Gabriel on my right side and your heir is between your hands(present), and this is Michael on my left one, and my guardian 'Ali bin Abu Talib is between my hands', the Jewish man embraced Islam and his religion became stronger.

SEVEN POSITIONS WHICH HAVE NO TEMPORAL SUPPLICATION
: Abu Ja'far(A.S) said: There are seven positions which have no temporal supplication (or they are not distinguished by having a specific supplication other than other supplications, where the devotee can supplicate his Lord whatever he wants regarding the good supplication), : the funeral's prayer, the invocation in the prayer, he who is sought a refuge; al-Safa; al Marwa, the staying at Arafat, and the two Rak'ahs of al-Tawaf (circumambulation) or al-Sa'i between safa and Marwa.

NOTHING CAN BE DONE BETWEEN HEAVENS AND EARTH BUT WITH SEVEN THINGS : Abu al-Hassan al-Awwal(A.S) said: Nothing can be done between the Heavens and the earth but with seven matters: the Predestination and the Divine decree; the Wish and the Will; the Decree and the death; and a permission, so he who says other than this he is a liar in relation to Allah, or he reverts against Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious.

THE PROPHET(SAW) EXCLAIMED ALLAH IS GREAT SEVEN TIMES REGARDING AL-NAJJASHI : 'Ali(A.S) reported that when Gabriel came to the Messenger of Allah(SAW) informing him with the death of al-Najjashi, he wept sadly due to him and said: Your brother As-hammah -this is the name of al-Najjashi - died, so the prophet went to the grave yard and offered for him the death prayer and exclaimed 'Allah is Great' seven times, to the extent that Allah lowered every height for the prophet in order to see his funeral in Ethiopia (or al-Habbasha).

WHEN ALLAH - THE EXALTED AND THE GLORIOUS - IS VERY ANGRY WITH A NATION, HE WILL AFFLICT IT WITH SEVEN THINGS IF HE DIDN'T TORMENT IT : 'Ali(A.S) reported: the Messenger of Allah(SAW) as saying: When Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious - is very angry with a nation - or a people - where He didn't afflict it with torment: Its standard of living becomes very expensive; the periods of the people's lives become short; its trade suffers from loss, its fruits decrease; Its rivers become exhausted; Its rain becomes dried; and its evil men will be given power against it.

LOVING THE PROPHET AND HIS HOUSE HOLD(A.S) IS BENEFICIAL IN SEVEN POSITIONS : Ali bin al-Hussein(A.S) reported: the Messenger of Allah(SAW), as saying: Loving me and my house hold will be beneficial in seven positons: At death; at the grave; at the Resurrection; at The Glorious book; at the judgement; at the scale; end at he Path.

HELL CONSISTS OF SEVEN GATES : Abu Abdullah reported, his father reported; his grandfather(A.S) as saying: Hell consists of seven gates: One of which is dedicated for pharaoh Haman, and Qarun, the second of which is dedicated for the disbelievers and the infidels who didn't believe in Allah even with a blink of an eye; the third of which is dedicated especially for the Ummayad people where no one will match them concerning it; and it is the gate of the flame (LATHA), the gate of the Hell - Fire (Saqar), and it is the gate of the bottomless Pit (AL Hawia) where it will throw them a distance measured as seventy years inside it, so the more they are thrown seventy years down in Hell, the more fire will bubble up with them and will throw them up once again through the distance measured as seventy years, then they will be thrown down again and so on and so forth, so that they will remain eternally tormented by this; and a gate dedicated for those who hate and fight us, where this is the greatest gate and the warmest one.

'ALI(A.S) WILL ENGAGE PEOPLE IN ARGUMENT, ON THE DAY OF RESURRECTION, WITH SEVEN QUALITIES : Ammar bin Yassir reported, Jabir bin Abdullah reported: the Messenger of Allah(SAW) as saying to 'Ali(A.S): I will engage you in argument on The Day of Resurrection, and I will engage you in agrument with the prophecy, and you will engage your clan in argument with seven qualities: The performance of prayer; the payment of the Zakat; Enjoining what is right, and forbidding what is wrong; the justice regarding the tuled people; the fair allotment; and the submission to Allah's - The Exalted and The Glorious - commands. Don't you know 'Ali that Abraham(A.S) will meet us on the Day of Resurrection, and he will be positioned on the right side of the throne, and he will be dressed with the Paradise's apparels, and he will be beautified with its jewels and trinkets, and a spout of the flowing gold will be made for him from Paradise from which some thing sweeter than honey and whiter than milk and colder than snow will blow, then I will be called and positioned on the left side of the throne, and I'll be given the same thing, then you will be called and will be given the same thing, wouldn't you agree 'Ali to be called as I will be called, and to be dressed when I am dressed, and to be beautified when I am beautified with the jewels, for Allah - Glorified be His name - commanded me to bring you closer to me, and never to send you away, to teach you and never to desert you, and it was due from you to comprehend, and it was due from me to obey my Lord - The Blessed and The Exalted.

- Mua'adh bin Jabal reported, the Messenger of Allah(SAW) as saying to 'Ali: I will engage you in argument with the prophecy where no prophet will be after me, and you'll engage the people in argument with seven qualities where you will not be engaged in argument with them by any one from Quraish, because you are the first of them concerning the faith; you are the Most redeemer amongst them of the covenant of Allah; the Most performer to the command of Allah; the straightest of them when judging, the excellent just ruler regarding any matter of Islam; and the greatest in Allah's sight.

THE MAJOR SINS ARE SEVEN : Abu Abdullah(A.S) said: The major sins are seven, they were descended due to us, and they are made unlawful; the first of which is the infidelity (or associating a partner with Allah

- The Great); killing the soul whom Allah has declared inviolate without a just cause; devouring the property of an orphan, disobeying the parents; fleeing from the battle field; slandering the pious women who never even think of any thing touching chastity and they are good believers; and denying our right, as for associating a partner with Allah, Allah has descended so much evidences regarding us, He said to the Messenger of Allah(SAW), regarding us so much evidences, so they attributed lies to Allah, and they attributed lies to His Messenger; and they associated partners with Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious -, as for killing the soul whom Allah has declared inviolate, they killed al-Hussein bin 'Ali(A.S) and his associates; as for devouring the property of an orphan, they ate our booties which Allah has made lawful for us and they gave them to people other than us; as for disobeying the parents, Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious - has mentioned in His book: The Prophet is closer to the believers than their own selves and their wives are their mothers{(33-6), so they disobeyed the messenger of Allah(SAW) regarding his offspring, and they disobeyed their mother Khaddijah concerning her offspring; as for slandering the pious women, they slandered Fatima(A.S) from the top of their pulpits; the meaning of slandered Fatima(A.S) is they were rejected here in (FADAK) STORY, and they were rejected that AL HASSAN and AL HUSSAIN as sons of messenger at ALLAH(SAW), as for fleeing from the battlefield, they made a covenant with the leader of the faithful(A.S) and they were free and not constrained, so they abandoned him and let him down; and as for denying our right, this is what they do not dispute for.

- The Messenger of Allah(SAW) said: Avoid the seven noxious things, it was said: 'what are they, Messenger of Allah', he said: Associating a partner with Allah; practicing sorcery; killing one whom Allah has declared inviolate without a just cause; eating the money of usury; devouring the property of an orphan; fleeing from the battle field; and slandering the pious women who never even think of any thing touching chastity where they are good believers.

ON WHAT WAS MENTIONED ABOUT TUESDAY : Abu Abdullah(A.S): said: He who intends to travel, he should travel on Saturday, since if there was a stone moved from its position on Saturday; Allah would return it to its position once again, and he whose duties stumbled, he should seek for Tuesday to accomplish them, since this day was the day on which Allah yielded the metal for the prophet David(A.S).

- Abu Abdullah(A.S): said: He who says, in the last prostration of each superfluous of the sunset prayer on evening the of Thursday (it means belonged to Friday so it night of Friday); where it is preferable to say this at every day's sunset prayer: 'O Allah!! I ask you with Your Noble Face, and your Great Name to bless Mohammed and the family of Mohammed, and to forgive my great sin', seven times, he goes and he is forgiven.

- Abu Abdullah(A.S): said also: If the evening of Thursday and the night of Friday come, the Angels will descend from Heaven supplied with pens of gold and papers of silver, where they do not record any thing in the evening of Thursday and the night of Friday till the sun sets save asking Allah's blessings for the prophet(SAW).

SEVEN QUALITIES BELONG TO THE SHIITES : Mohammed bin 'Ali(A.S) said: Verily, the shiites of 'Ali are those who devote them selves whole heartedly to be loyal to us, those who are loving each others regarding our cordiality, those who are visiting each others regarding the revival of our affairs, those who when become angry they do not oppress, and when they are content they do not exceed the proper limits; those who are considered a good benediction for whom they live near; and those who are considered peaceful with whom they associate.

THE MESSENGER OF ALLAH(SAW) CURSED ABU SUFYAN IN SEVEN OCCASIONS : Abu al-Tufail 'Amer bin Wae'la reported: The Messenger of Allah(SAW) as cursing Abu Sufyan in seven occasions, where he couldn't but curse him in all these occasions: The first of which when Allah and His Messenger cursed him whilst emigration from Mecca to Medina, when Abu Sufyan was on his way coming from al-Sham, so he met the prophet and began to insult and to threaten to kill him, then Allah dismissed him from the way of His Messenger; the second of which when Abu Sufyan dismissed the caravan seeking to prevent the Messenger of Allah(SAW) to own it, so Allah and His Messenger cursed him; the third of which when it was the battle of Uhud where Abu Sufyan said: 'Be high Hubal', the Messenger of Allah(SAW) then said: 'Allah is Higher and More Splendour', Abu Sufyan then said: 'Uzza belongs to us where there is no Uzza for you', the Messenger of Allah(SAW) then said: 'Allah is our Lord and there is no Lord for you'; the fourth of which was on the day of the pit Battle (al-Khandak) when Abu Sufyan came with a band of Quraish and Allah defeated them back with their exasperation, and they didn't attain any success, and Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious - descended two evidences in surat al-AHzab, where he named Abu Sufyan and his associates as infidels, and Mu'awaya as polythiest and as an enemy of both Allah and His Messenger; the fifth of which was on the day of al-Hudaybiya, where guidance was about to reach its aim, but the infidels of Quraish repulsed the Messenger of Allah(SAW) away from the sacred mosque, and the Messenger(SAW) returned back unable to circumambulate around the Ka'ba, and unable to complete his asceticism or (Devoutness), so Allah and His Messenger cursed Abu Sufyan once again; the sixth of which was on the day of al-AHzab when Abu Sufyan brought a banding from Quraish; 'Amer bin Tufail brought a banding from Hwazan; and Uyayana bin Hussn brought a banding from Quatafan, where he fixed an appointment to make them meet Quraidha and al-Nudeir, and the Messenger of Allah(SAW) cursed the leaders and the followers both and said: 'As for the followers , the curse will not afflict a believer, and as for the leaders, there is neither a believer nor a noble, nor an escaper amongst them'; the seventh of which was on the day when they held a campaign which implied twelve men from the Ummayad people and five men from the other common ones at al-Akaba, so the Messenger(SAW) cursed those who were at al-Akaba save the prophet(SAW) and his she-camel as well as his both hostler and leader.

- AL Sheikh ALSadooq- May Allah will be very pleased because of him - said: This piece of news was narrated in this form, but the people of Al-Akaba were, in fact, fourteen men... .etc.

JOB(A.S) WAS TRIED SEVERELY SEVEN YEARS WITHOUT COMMITTING A SIN : Abu Ja'far bin Mohammed reported, his father(A.S) as saying: Job(A.S) was tried severely without committing a sin, knowing that prophets do not commit sins because they are protected to do so, and they are purified against committing either sins or against being deviated from the righteous course to commit a sin, either a major one or a simple one.

THE LEADER OF THE FAITHFUL 'ALI BIN ABU TALIB(A.S) HAD PRAYED SEVEN YEARS BEFORE THE PEOPLE BEGAN TO PRAY :

'Ali(A.S) said: I am the devotee of Allah and the brother of His Messenger, and I am the Great trust worthy, where no one says it after me without being considered a liar, I had prayed seven years before the people began to pray. Gabriel(A.S) was told by Allah - Splendour Be His Majesty - that He gave the Shiites of 'Ali bin Abu Talib(A.S) and his lovers seven qualities. where Jabir bin Abdullah al-Ansari said: 'I was at the Assembly of the Messenger of Allah(SAW) one day when 'Ali bin Abu Talib(A.S) came, and the prophet(SAW) said to him: 'shall I not give you a glad tiding Abu al-Hassan?' him related to the matters of the Shiites and their narrations, he(A.S) said: 'Abdul-Aziz, faith consists of ten ranks similar to the ladder which has ten steps, where you can ascend every rank after the other, so the man who is on the first rank shouldn't say to him who is on the second one 'you have naught to stand upon', and he who is on the second one shouldn't say to him who is on the third one 'you have naught to stand upon' till the tenth step», he said: «Salman was on the tenth step, Abu Dharr on the nineth, al-Miqdad on the eighth, 'Abdul-Aziz do not ridicule him who is lower in rank, for you'll be ridiculed from he who is higher than you in rank, and if you see him who is lower than you in rank, and you are able to raise him to your rank with a jentle way, then do it, and avoid let him bear (To burden him) what is beyond his capacity since you may break him; knowing that he who breaks any believer, he should splint him, for if you load the young weaned camel above its capacity, you may break apart its stands.

THE REWARD FOR HIM WHO CALLED TEN YEARS FOR PRAYER EXPECTING A REWARD FROM ALLAH : Abu Ja'far(A.S) said: He who called ten years for prayer expecting a reward from Allah, Allah will forgive him as much as the strain of his sight or eyes, and the strain of his voice in the sky, where every wet and dried thing which heard him will believe him: and he will attain from every one who prays a good out of every one who prays with him due to his voice.

slyness?, and if the passing over the path (on the Day of Resurrection) is true, then what is the benefit of conceitedness?, and if every thing is a matter of fate and predestination, then what is the use of grief?, and if This World is considered transient, then what is the use of putting trust in it?.

They used to eat what the wolf and lion had eaten; but Allah forbade that. That which is sacrificed on stone (altars). They used to sacrifice for the sake of fire houses. The people of Quraish used to worship the trees and the rocks, so they sacrificed for the sake of both. }(forbidden) also is the division (of meat) by raffling with arrows: That is impiety{. He said: They used to bring the young sheep and cut it to ten parts; then they would gather around it and bring out the arrows, and give it to a man. He said it is a duty on every Muslim to say ten times before the rising of the sun, and ten times before its setting: There is no god but Allah Alone, Who has no partner, the dominion and the Praise belong to Him, and He giveth life and giveth death, and He is Living never dies; The Good belongs to Him and He is Omnipotent. He said: Then I said: There is no god but Allah Alone Who hath no Partner, the Dominion and Praise belong to Him; He giveth life and He giveth death, and He giveth death and He giveth life», I commented: You man, there is no doubt that Allah giveth life and giveth death; and He giveth death and giveth life, but you should say as I have said.

Chapter 13

PART 12-ON TWELVE-NUMBERED CHARACTERISTICS

THE CHAPTER FROM ONE TO TWELVE QUALITIES

Tawus said: Some people belong to the Jews came to 'Umar bin al-Khattab when he was in the office of command over people and said: You are in charge of this matter after your Prophet, and we came to you asking about things which if you informed us, we will believe, verify and follow you. 'Umar said: Ask whatever you wish? they asked: inform us about the locks and the keys of the seven heavens? Inform us about a grave which has traveled with his inmate? Inform us about he who has warned his people while he was belonging neither to jinn nor to mankind? inform us about a place in which sun has risen but it will not return to it? Inform us about five who has not been created in the wombs? Inform us about a one, two, three, four, five, six, seven, eight, nine, ten, eleven and twelve? the narrator said that 'Umar bowed his head and kept silent then opened his eyes and said: You have asked 'Umar something about which he had no knowledge, but the cousin of Allah's Messenger(SAW) would inform you about what you asked me. 'Umar sent someone to call 'Ali and when he came 'Umar said to him: Abu al-Hassan, some people of Jews have asked me things about which I did not give any answer, while they confirmed to me that if I informed them about them they will believe in the Prophet(SAW). 'Ali(A.S) then said to them: People of Jews, display to me your questions; and they informed him with the same they had informed 'Umar. 'Ali(A.S) told them if they intended to ask about anything else and they replied: no, father of Shubar and Shubiar. 'Ali(A.S) answered then them as follows: the locks of the Heavens indicate to associating anything with Allah, and their keys are saying there is No god but Allah'. As for the grave which has traveled with its inmate, it indicates to the whale which has traveled with Jonah in his belly Aarund the seven seas. As for he who has warned his people while he belonged neither to Jinn nor to man kind, it was the ant at Sulaiman bin David(A.S). As for the place in which the sun had risked and did not return to it, it was the sea in which Allah

- Who is Great and Glorious - has saved Moses(A.S), and drowned Pharaoh and his companions. As for the five who have not been created in wombs, they were: Adam, Eve, Moses's rod, Salih's she - camel and Abraham's ram. As for the One, it is Allah who has no partner - As for the two, they are Adam and Eve. As for the three they are Gabriel, Michael and Israfil. As for the four, they are the Torah, the Gospel, the Psalms and the Qur'an. As for the five, they are the five prescribed prayers upon the Prophet(SAW). As for the six, they are implied in Allah's - Who is Great and Glorious - saying: }we created the Heavens and the Earth and all between them in six days[50 : 38]. As for the seven, they are implied in Allah's - Who is Great and Glorious - Saying: }And (have We not) built over you the seven firmaments[78 : 12]. As for the eight, they are implied in Allah's - Who is Great and Glorious - saying: }And eight will, that Day, bear the throne of thy Lord above them[69 : 17]. As for the Nine, they were the signs which Allah had sent down on Moses son of 'Imran(A.S). As for the Ten, they are implied in Allah's - Who is Great and Glorious - Saying: }we appointed for Moses thirty nights, and completed (the period) with ten (more)[7 : 142]. As for the Eleven, they are implied in Joseph's address to his father: I did see eleven stars[12 : 4]. As for the twelve, they are implied in Allah's - Who is Great and Glorious - Saying: "Strike the rock with thy staff." then gushed forth therefrom twelve springs[[2 : 60]. The narrator said: The Jews then turned to one another saying: We testify that there is no god but Allah, and that Mohammed (SAW) is Allah's Messenger, and that you are the cousin of Allah's Messenger(SAW). Then they turned to 'Umar saying: We testify that this is the brother of Allah's Messenger(SAW), and by Allah he is most entitled to this office than you. Those who were with them accepted Islam and their observance of Islam was good.

THERE WILL BE AFTER THE PROPHET(SAW) TWELVE CALIPHS AND IMAMS(A.S) : Ash - Sa'bi reported Masruq as saying: When we were with 'Abdullah bin Mas'ud reviewing our memorized Qur'an before him, a young man said to him: Did your Prophet(SAW) take your promise how many caliphs will come after him? He answered: You are young and none has asked me about this before you do so. Yes! Our Prophet(SAW) took our promise that there will be after his time twelve caliphs the same as the number of the somas of Israel's Captains.

Jabir bin Samura said: My father and I were with the Prophet(SAW) and I heard him saying: when I die, there will be twelve commanders then he lowered his voice and I asked my father: what Allah's Messenger(SAW) had concealed and he answered: he said, 'All of which belong to Quraish'.

Salman al-Farisi - May Allah show mercy to him - said: When I came in to the Prophet(SAW) I found al-Hussien(A.S) sitting on his thighs while he was kissing his eyes and mouth saying: You are a pre-eminent son of a pre - eminent, you are an Imam son of an Iman who is the father of the Imams, You are a Reasoning son of a Reasoning and the father of nine Reasoning will come from your back, the nine of which is the Resurrected one of them 'Ali(A.S) reported Allah's Messenger(SAW) as saying: Rejoice, then rejoice again, - three times - the similitude of my people is that of an abundant rain which it is not known whether the good consists in it beginning or its end; the similitude of my people is that of a garden from which a group of people were fed for a year, then another group were fed for a year, may be the last group of it will be the most spacious in generosity and power, and the most excellent in rewarding. How should a people perish when I am the First of them and twelve among the happy ones and men of understanding will come after me; and the Jesus Christ son of Mary will be the last of them; but in the period between that the descendants of commotion will perish for they will have nothing to do with me and I will have nothing to do with them.

Salim bin Qais al-Hilali reported that he had heard 'Abdullah bin Ja'far al-Taiyar as saying: we were at MUAWYIA, I Al-Hassan, al-Hussien, 'Abdullah bin 'Abbas, 'Umar bin Aby Salama, 'Usama bin Zaid and I were with Mu'awiya and a conversation was held between Mu'awiya and me where I said to him; I heard Allah's Messenger(SAW) as saying. I am closer to the believers than their own selves, then my brother 'Ali bin Aby Talib(A.S) is to the believers than their own selves, and if 'Ali was killed as a martyr then al-Hassan bin 'Ali is closer to the believers than their own selves, then his son al-Hussien is closer to the believers than their own selves, and if he martyrizes then his son 'Ali bin al-Hussien, the greatest, is closer to the believers than their own selves, then my son Mohammed bin 'Ali, al-Baqir, is closer to the believers than their own selves, and you, Hussien will attain his time, then the rest of the twelve Imams, nine belong to the descendants of al-Hussien - for whom Allah's Good pleasure is prayed -' Abdullah bin Ja'fir said: I called then al-Hassan, al-Hussien, 'Abdullah bin 'Abbas. 'Umar bin Abu Salama and 'Usama bin Zaid to witness for me with Mu'a wiya. Salim bin Qais al-Hilali concluded: I have heard that from Salman, Abu Dharr and al-Muqdad who declared that they heard that from Allah's Messenger(SAW).

Jabir bin 'Abdullah al-Ansari said: I visited Fatima(A.S) when she had a board containing the names of the Guardians in her hands, and she numbered the names of twelve among which was the Resurrected One(A.S), three of them were named Mohammed, and another three were named 'Ali.

Abu Ja'far Mohammed bin 'Ali, al-Jawad(A.S) reported the leader of the faithful(A.S) as saying to Ibn 'Abbas: The Night of Power comes every year and during it the matter of the year is sent down, and Allah has appointed for that matter administrators after Allah's Messenger(SAW) death. Ibn 'Abbas asked: Who are they? He answered: I and eleven Imams and narrators of the tradition who will come from my back.

'Ali bin Abu Talib(A.S) reported Allah's Messenger(SAW) as saying among his recommendation to him: 'Ali, tooth-stich (SUAK) belongs to the Prophet's practices, it is a means of purification for the mouth, clears the vision, pleases the compassionate One, whiteness the tooth, removes cavities, strengthens the gum, causes appetite for food, removes the sputum, activates the memory, multiplies the good deeds and the angels rejoice for its being wet.

PEOPLE OF PIETY HAVE TWELVE SIGNS : Abu Ja'fir Mohammed bin 'Ali, al-Baqir,(A.S) said: The leader of the faithful(A.S) used to say: people's piety is known by certain signs: speaking the truth, rendering back the trusts, fulfillment of the covenant, paucity of boast and niggardliness, join ties of relationship, showing merry to the weak, paucity of being accordant with women, offering what is good, having good deposition, showing great leniency, seeking knowledge in what brings near to Allah - Who is Great and Glorious - Tuba and a beautiful place of return are certain for them; where Tuba is a tree in Paradise whose root is in the house of Alla's Messenger(SAW), and there is no believer without a branch from its branches being in his house, and he will not wish for something in his heart without its being brought that branch, were it not for a hasten rider to move under its shade for a hundred years, he would not pass it; were it not for a crow to fly as from its roots, it would not reach its highest position till it becomes grey due to decrepitude. So you have to wish something like that, the believer is busy concerning himself, while people are in comfort concerning him; When the night covers him over he will spread out his face, prostrate himself to Allah the most High, make mention of Him using the Noble parts of his body and hold a private talk with He Who has created him regarding setting him free from Hell, So You should be the same as above.

SALUTATION SHOULD NOT BE GIVEN TO TWELVE CLASSES OF PEOPLE : Ja'far bin Mohammad reported his father(A.S) as saying: "So not give salutation to Jews, Christians, polytheists, those who sit around tables on which wine is served, he who plays chess and trictrac, a hermaphrodite, a poet who slanders the chaste women, he who is engaged in prayer for he is forbidden to return greeting since salutation of a Muslim is a voluntary action while returning it is an obligatory one: he who devours usury, a man when he is relieving oneself, he who is in the bath, and the profligate who makes his profligacy publically known.

THE PROPHET(SAW) RECEIVED JA'FAR BIN ABU TALIB(A.S) WHEN HE RETURNED BACK FROM ETHIOPIA BY WALKING TWELVE STEPS TOWARDS HIM : 'Ali bin Abu Talib(A.S) told that when Ja'far bin Abu Talib came back from Ethiopia Allah's Messenger(SAW) went to receive him with twelve steps; he embraced him, kissed his forehead, wept and said: I don't know in which of both I feel more rejoiced: Owing to your coming back, Ja'far or due to the conquest of Khaibar by Allah through your brother? then he wept owing to rejoice with seeing him again.

TWELVE QUALITIES SHOULD BE APPLIED WHEN SITTING FOR EATING : Abu 'Abdullah reported his ancestor(A.S) as saying: Al-Hasan bin 'Ali(A.S) said: Twelve qualities on sitting for eating should be known by every Muslim; four of them are obligatory, four of them belong to the Prophet's practices and the last four are good conduct. As for the obligatory ones, they are: knowledge, being pleased, mentioning Allah's name, thanks giving. As for those belonging to the Prophet's practices, they are: performing ablution before eating, sitting upon one's left side, eating with three fingers, licking the fingers. As to those belonging to the good conduct, they are: eating from what is next to you, minimizing the mouthful, good chewing and rarely looking at people's faces.

THE NIGHT'S HOURS ARE TWELVE AS WELL AS THE DAY'S HOURS ARE TWELVE : Abu 'Abdullah(A.S) said: The night's hours are twelve and the day's hours are twelve as well; but the most excellent times during night and day are the times of prayer, the he(A.S) added: When the sun passes the meridian, the Heaven's gates are opened, the wind blows and Allah Who is Great and Glorious looks at His creatures and I like a good deed of mine to rise up to Heaven at that time, then he said: Hold to supplication after prayer for it is answered.

THE NARRATION OF THE TWELVE DIRHAMS WHICH WERE GIFTED TO ALLAH'S MESSENGER(SAW) : al-Sadiq, Abu 'Abdullah Ja'far bin Mohammed(A.S) said: A man came to Allah's Messenger(SAW) - when his garment was worn - he handed him twelve Dirhams and he(SAW) said: 'Ali, take these Dirhams and buy for them a garment for me to wear it. 'Ali(A.S) said: I went to the market and bought a shirt for him for twelve Dirhams and when I brought it to Allah's Messenger(SAW) he looked at it and said: Ali, something other than this is dearer to me, would his owner return it back?. I answered: I do not know. He said: Try that. Then I went to its owner and said to him: Allah's Messenger(SAW) disapproved this shirt and he wishes other than it, so would you return it back? And he returned the Dirhams back to me and I brought them to Allah's Messenger(SAW) where he went with me to the market to buy a shirt; he looked at a slave girl sitting on the road crying; Allah's Messenger(SAW) asked her: What is the matter with you?, and she answered: Allah's Messenger, my masters gave me four Dirhams to buy something for them but they were lost, so I dare not to go back to them; Allah's Messenger(SAW) then gave her four Dirhams and said: Go back to your masters. Allah's Messenger(SAW) went off to market and bought a shirt for four dirhams and wore it and praised Allah who is Great and Glorious, then he saw a somewhat naked man saying: He who clothes me, Allah will clothe him with Paradise's clothing. Allah's Messenger(SAW) then took off his shirt which he had bought and clothed the beggar. He - upon whom be Peace - went back to market and bought another shirt for the outstanding Dirhams and wore it praising Allah who is Great and Glorious; and when he went back to his house he found the slave girl sitting on the road crying; Allah's Messenger(SAW) asked her: Why you did not go back to your masters? she answered: Allah's Messenger, I have been delayed to return to them, so I am afraid lest they may beat me. Allah's messenger(SAW) said: Walk before me and guide to your masters». Allah's Messenger(SAW) walked till he stood before their house's door and said: Peace be upon you, inmates of the house but they did not answer him, and he gave them a salutation again but they did not answer him, then he gave a salutation once again and they answered: And upon you be Peace, Allah's Messenger, and Allah's Mercy and His Blessings. He - Peace be upon him said: Why you did not return my salutation in the first and the second times? they said: Allah's Messenger(SAW) said: This slave girl have been delayed to return to you, so do not injure her they said: Allah's Messenger, she is free due to your coming. Allah's Messenger(SAW) said then: Praise be to Allah, I have never seen any twelve Dirhams more blessed than these. for Allah clothed two naked people by which, and emancipated a soul.

PART 13-ON THIRTEEN-NUMBERED CHARACTERISTICS

THIRTEEN FINE QUALITIES BELONGING TO THE LEADER OF THE FAITHFUL(A.S) : Jabir bin 'Abdullah al-Ansari said: I had heard Allah's Messenger(SAW) as saying: 'Ali(A.S) has some fine qualities, were it not for all mankind to have one of which, it would be enough to them in grace. His saying(SAW): If any one takes me as his patron then 'Ali is his patron as well. His saying(SAW): The position of 'Ali with respect to me is as that of Haron with respect to Moses. His saying(SAW): 'Ali belongs to me and I belong to him. His saying(SAW): 'Ali is the same as my self. showing obedience to him is as showing obedience to me, and showing disobedience to him is as showing disobedience to me. His saying(SAW): War waged by 'Ali is Allah's War; peace made by 'Ali is Allah's peace. His saying(SAW): 'Ali's friend is Allah's friend, and 'Ali's enemy is Allah's enemy. His saying(SAW): 'Ali is Allah's Reasoning, and His vicegerent regarding His servants. His saying(SAW): Showing love to 'Ali indicates to faith, and showing hatred to him implies infidelity. His saying(SAW): 'Ali's party is Allah's party, but his enemy's party is the devil's party». His saying(SAW): 'Ali is with the truth, and the truth is with him; they will not separate till they will come to me at the cirtern.

His saying(SAW): Paradise and Hell share». His saying(SAW): He who separates from 'Ali, then he separates from me; and he who separates from me. then he has separated from Allah who is Great and Glorious. His saying(SAW): On the Day of Resurrection, 'Ali's Shiites are the winners.

Chapter 15

PART 14- ON FOURTEEN-NUMBERED CHARACTERISTICS

FOURTEEN QUALITIES CONSIST IN DYING : 'Ali bin Abu Talib(A.S) reported the prophet(SAW) as saying in the course of his recommendation to him: 'Ali, spending a Dirham in dying is better than a thousand Dirhams spent in Allah's path; for fourteen good qualities consist in using it: It expels wind from the ears, clears the eyesight, softens the nostrils, causes a good smell, strengthens the gum, removes the Antigua, minimizes the devil's prompting, angels rejoice there by , the believer rejoices there by, the infidel displeases there by, it is an ornament and a perfume, and Munkar and Nakir will show shyness there by, and it will give him freedom from punishment in his grave.

Chapter 16

PART 15-ON FIFTEEN-NUMBERED CHARACTERISTICS

WHEN THE COMMUNITY DOES THESE FIFTEEN QUALITIES CALAMITY WILL BEFALL ON : 'Ali bin Aby Talib(A.S) reported Allah's Messenger(SAW) : If my people did these fifteen qualities, calamity would befall them; he was asked: What are they, Messenger of Allah? He answered: If the booty becomes by turns, the trust is considered as booty, the Zakat is considered as loss, if man obeys his wife, disobeys his mother, acts kindly towards his friend, acts unkindly toward his father, when voices rise in the mosques, when the leader of the People is the worst among them, when people play on musical instruments, and when the alters of the community curse the former of it, they should then look forward to a red wind, a swallow by land, or a metamorphosis.

The Sheikh AL Sadooq - for whom Allah's Good Pleasure is prayed - said: He meant by his saying, 'And the last of this people curse its first' that its last are the outsiders. Al-Khawarij - who curse the leader of the Faithful(A.S) who is the first of this people in believing in Allah - Who is Great and Glorious - and in His Messenger(SAW).

The narrator said: If any - one fasts on that day, Allah will remove Hell away from him as far as the distance cut in ten years; if anyone fasts seven days during it, Allah will lock the seven gates of Hells when he will be out, if anyone fasts eight days during it, the eight gates of the Paradises will be opened for him; if anyone fasts fifteen days during it, he will be given what he has asked for; and if anyone fasts more, Allah Who is Great and Glorious will give him more.

Chapter 17

PART 16- ON SIXTEEN-NUMBERED CHARACTERISTICS

THE LEARNED IS ENTITLED TO SIXTEEN QUALITIES : ‘Ali bin Abu Talib(A.S) said: The learned is entitled to that whom you should not ask many questions; you should not precede him in the answer; you should not insist on him when he turns away; do not hold with his garment when he feels tired; do not point to him with your hand; do not wink at him with your eyes; do not take with him privately where in his sitting place; do not follow his flutes; and you should not say: So and so has said something different from your saying; do not reveal any secret belong to him; do not slander anyone in his presence; and you should respect him whether he is present or absent, and you should give salutation to all people and specialize him with a specific greeting; you should sit before him; and if he has a need, you should precede people to serve him; and do not be impatient regarding his companionship for long time, for he is as a palm tree from which you are waiting for a benefit to fall down. The learned has the rank of he who fasts, prays at night, and fights in Allah’s Path - When the learned dies a notch will be notched in Islam and it will never be plugged up till the Day of Resurrection; and he who seeks knowledge have seventy angels among those who are drawn near to Allah in the Heaven following him at his death.

One day, the garment fell down from one of his shoulders when he was engaged in prayer, so he did not fix it till he finished his prayer; one of his companion asked him about that and he replied: Woe to you! Do you know before Whom I have been, nothing of a man's prayer is accepted but the parts he offers with his heart attentive. The man said: We have perished then. He replied: No! Allah -Who is Great and Glorious - will complete that with the supererogatory prayers. He - upon whom be Peace - used to go out in the very dark night carrying on his back a leather bag filled of sealed small bags of Dinars and Dirhams, he would perhaps carry on his back food or firewood till he came door by door and knocked on the door and delivered something to the one who came out to meet him; when he delivered something to a poor, he would veil his face lest the poor may recognize him; when he - upon whom be Peace - died, the people missed that and knew that it was 'Ali bin al_Hussien(A.S). house, he will never step on something which wet or dried of the earth without it will glorify Allah in his favor till the seven earths. He sustained the inmates of one hundred houses among the people of the Madina. He liked that the orphans, the injurious, the sick, and the needy people who are powerless would attend his food, he used to hand them with his hands, and those who had children, he would provide them with food for their children. He would never eat something before giving alike as Alms Sadaqah. Jacob, the prophet - Peace be upon him - had twelve sons, and Allah concealed from him one of them, his eyes became white due to his much crying for him, and the hair of his head became gray owing to grief, and his back became bent due to distress, while his son was alive in This World, I looked at my father, my brother, my uncle, and seventeen people among them members of my family killed around me, then how should my grief pass out?'

He replied: You should believe in Allah alone, Who hath no partner; worship Him and worship none but Him, observe the prayer after performing an ablution well, in its proper time, and not defer it, for the Wrath of Allah - Who is Great and Glorious - is caused when it is deferred without an excuse; Pay the Zakat; fast during Ramadan; make the Pilgrimage to the House, if you have money and capacity; obey your parents; not consume the orphan's property wrongfully; not devour usury, neither drink wine nor any of the intoxicant beverages; neither commit fornication nor have sodomy, not going about with slander, do not swear by Allah false, do not steal, do not witness for anyone whether a relative or a stranger a false testimony; accept the truth from him who has produced it whether he is young or old; not have confidence in an oppressor, even if he is a very close friend; not act upon your affection; not slander a chaste woman; not show up, for the lowest type of hypocrisy is an associating others with Allah - Who is Great and Glorious -; not say to a short man: You, short man, neither to a tall man; You tall man means to defame him; not sneer at anyone of Allah's creatures; show endurance at the times of affliction and calamity, be grateful to Allah due to His Favors which He has bestowed to you; not feel secure against Allah's Punishment for any sin you commit it; not despair of Allah's Mercy; turn to Allah - Who is Great and Glorious - in repentance regarding your sins, for he who turns to Allah in repentance for his sins is as the one who has no sins, not insist on committing sins when asking for Allah's forgiveness as he who is mocking at Allah, His signs, and His Messengers; know that what smites you, is not to miss you, and what misses you, is not to smite you; not cause Allah's Displeasure for the sake of the creature's pleasure; not prefer This World to the Hereafter, because This World will perish but the Next will endure; not be stingy to your brethren with what you can afford; that your inward should be the same as your outward; that your outward should not be good while your inward is bad, and if you do so, then you belong to the hypocrites; that you should not lie, neither associate with liars; you should not be angry when you hear the truth; you should educate yourself, your wife, your children, and your neighbours as much as you can, you should act upon what you have known, you should not treat anyone of Allah's - Who is Great and Glorious - creatures but with what is just; you should be easy towards the reactive and the stranger; you should not be powerful and obstinate transgressor; you should repeat often glorifying Allah, declaring Allah's Unity, the supplication, remembrance of death and what will come after it; such as: The Resurrection, Paradise and Hell; you should engage in the recitation of the Qur'an, and act upon what it contains; you should get hold of righteousness and dignity in the believing men and women; you should consider all which you do not like to do to yourself, and do not do it to anyone of the believers; you should not bear of doing the good; you should not annoy anyone; you should not remind anyone of a favor with you have done to him; you should consider This World in your estimation as a prison till Allah will appoint the Paradise for you. Abu 'AbdAllah(A.S) said: Allah - Who is Great and Glorious - verily honours a man aged forty years, and He is ashamed of a man aged eighty years. Abu Baseer reported Abu 'AbdAllah(A.S) as saying: when the devotee attains thirty three years, he has attained his full manhood; when he attains forty years, he has reached the top of full strength; when he departs forty one years, he is then in dimintion; and he who is fifty years old should behave as him who is about to die.

Abu Baseer reported Abu 'AbdAllah(A.S) as saying: The devotee has a plenty of time till he reaches forty years; if he attains forty years, Allah Who is Great and Glorious - will inspire the angels that: I have let my devotee live such a long life, so be rough and harsh with him, and memorize and record against him his little, much, minor , and major sins.

'He added: Abu Ja'far(A.S) said: When a servant of Allah attains forty years, it will be said to him: Beware: for you are not entitled to be excused, for a man aged forty years in not more entitled to be excused than a man aged twenty years, for that which seeks for both is the same [i.e., death], and it is not heedless regarding both; so you should act for what will come of calamity, and abandon the supererogatory speech.

Abu 'AbdAllah(A.S) said: An aged - man will be brouht, on the Day of Resurrection, and his scroll will be given forth to him, its out ward will be evil deeds, and that will be lasted so much upon him, he will then say: My lord, do Thou want to admit me to Hell? THE LEADER OF THE FAITHFUL(A.S) PLEADED ABU BAKR BY FORTY - THREE QUALITIES :Ja'far bin Muhammed, his father, his grand father(A.S) said: 'Regarding what happened to 'Ali bin Aby Talib(A.S) due to the inauguration of Abu Bakr as a caliph, and of being given the vows to be the leader of the faithful, Abu Bakr was still showing 'Ali the good manners and the latter was still showing anger to him. This enraged Abu Bakr a lot, so he liked to meet 'Ali(A.S), and to oblige him to say all what was hiddden in his heart and to apologize to him due to what the people had a greed upon regarding the inauguration of Abu Bakr as the leader of the faithful and the leader of the nation, and about his abstention and his asceticism to be so. Therefore, he came to him suddenly when he was alone and said: 'Abu al - Hassan, I swear by Allah that this matter was neither a conspiracy against you from me nor a desire in which I fell, nor a greediness for the sake of the leadership's rank, nor a confidence in my self regarding what the nation needs, nor a greediness for wealth nor for power, nor for the abundance of my offspring, nor due to a blackmailing for the sake of my self short of the others. So why do you bear in your heart what I do not deserve, and why do you show me hatred due to what I attained of the leadership, and why do you look at me with an envious eye?' He said: 'Ali(A.S) said: 'Then what obliged you to accept the leadership if you do not want if or if you are not greedy for it, or if you do not feel extreme confidence in yourself to be a true leader and to fulfill what is due upon you?' Abu Bakr replied: 'I heard a tradition from the Messenger of Allah(SAW) saying there in: ALLAH WILL NOT MAKE MY NATION AGREE UPON THE PERVERSITY OR ERROR. So when I saw that they agreed upon one opinion I couldn't but follwo and obey the tradition of the prophet(SAW), and I found that their agreement was not against the guidance, so I gave them the freedom of choice, and if only I knew that there was any one who didn't agree on my leadership, I would not have accepted it'. He said: 'Ali(A.S) said: 'As for what you have mentioned regarding the tradition of the prophet(SAW) that My people will not agree upon what is wrong, am I then one of this nation or not?', He said: 'Yes', 'Ali(A.S) said: 'And so is the group who opposed you, and who contained Salman, 'Ammar, Abu Dharr, Al - Miqdad, Ibn Ubadah and those who were with him of al - Ansar?', He said: 'they are all from this nation'. 'Ali(A.S) asked: 'Then how do you make the tradition of the prophet(SAW) as a plea on which you depended?, Knowing that those people didn't agree upon your leader ship. especially when they have no stigma which may stain them in this nation, and there was nothing wrong when they were the Messenger's associates, otherwise his advice to obey them was a mistake?' . He replied: 'I didn't know their opposition against me until I was inaugurated, and I was afraid if I refused the leadership, the people would revert into polytheism (Disbelievers), and the crisis will grow greater and bigger, where your agreement will make the matter easier, and will prevent the people to quarrel and fight each other to the degree that you may agree with me to keep them on Islam (unreversed)'. 'Ali(A.S) said then: 'Yes, but tell me about him who deserves the leadership better than me?'. Abu Bakr said: 'He who is characterized by: the good conduct; faithfulness; uncharacterized by favoritism or partiality, good reputation, showing justice, full knowledge of the Quran and the Messenger's paractice, the decisive speech; asceticism regarding all the temptation of This World, ungreediness towards it, and treating the oppressed person justly against the oppressor whether the latter is one of the relatives or not'. Abu Bakr stopped and 'Ali(A.S) said: 'Abu Bakr, I beseech you in the name of Allah, do you find these aspects in you or in me?' Abu Bakr replied: 'I find them in you - Abu al - Hassan'. He said: 'I beseech you in the name of Allah, am I the first believer in the Messenger of Allah(SAW) before any other Muslim or you?. He said: 'You, certainly'. 'Ali said: 'I beseech you in the name of Allah, am I him who is mentioned in the verse [The innocence] or you for all the nation?' Abu Bakr said: 'Certainly you', 'Ali(A.S) asked: 'I beseech you in the name of Allah am I him who defended and protected the Messenger of Allah(SAW) by his soul and body on the day of the cave or you?' Abu Bakr replied: 'certainly you'. He said: 'certainly you.', 'Ali(A.S) asked: 'I beseech you in the name of Allah am I the patron for you and for every muslim as mentioned in the tradition of the prophet(SAW) on the day of (al - Ghadir) or you?', He replied: 'certainly you', 'Ali(A.S) asked: 'I beseech you in the name of Allah, Is the leadership given to me by the Messenger of Allah(SAW) exactly as it was given to Haroun, the brother of Moses, or to you?'. He replied : 'certainly it was given to you', 'Ali(A.S) asked: 'I beseech you in the name of Allah, did the Messenger of Allah(SAW) fight the polytheists who were the christians using me and my house hold and my son as his equalizers or you?., he replied: ,certainly he used you and your house hold as his equalizers', 'Ali asked: 'I beseech you in the name of Allah, was the verse of purification from the stains for me brother?': he replied: 'certainly your brother'', 'Ali(A.S) asked: 'I beseech you in the name of Allah, am I the one who guaranteed and payed back the debt of the Messenger(SAW) and I declared its payment on its due time or you?', he replied: 'certainly you', 'Ali asked: 'I beseech you in the name of Allah, am I the one whom the messenger(SAW) had called to have a chicken with him where he wanted to eat it and said: «O, Allah! bring me the dearest person to you of your creature whom would be after my death», or you?', he replied: 'certainly you', he replied: 'certainly you', 'Ali asked: I beseech you in the name of Allah, am I the one whom the Messenger(SAW) had given a glad tiding to fight the dis-solutes, the disbelievers, and the hypocrites regarding the interpretataion of the Qur'an, or you?', he replied: 'certainly you', 'Ali(A.S) asked: 'I beseech you in the name of Allah, am I the person who heard and witnessed the last speech of the Messenger(SAW), and who was appointed to wash and bury him, or you?', he replied: 'certainly you', 'Ali(A.S) asked: 'I beseech you in the name of Allah, am I the person whom the Messenger of Allah had mentioned as the Most person well qualified in the Knowledge of judgment and justice when he said: «'Ali is the best of you in judgment», or you?', he replied: 'certainly you', 'Ali(A.S) asked: 'I beseech you in the name of Allah, am I the person for whom the messenger(SAW) had ordered his companions to greet regarding the leadership in the Messenger's life, or you?', he replied: 'certainly you', 'Ali(A.S) asked: 'I beseech you in the name of Allah, are you the one who was one of the messenger's closer relatives firt or you?', he replied: 'certainly you', 'Ali(A.S) asked: 'I beseech you in the name of Allah, are you the one whom Allah has honored with a Dinar when in need and when Gabriel had sold to you, and when the Messenger of Allah(SAW) was invited by you where you gave food to his son?, he said: 'Abu Bakr wept and said: certainly you', 'Ali(A.S) asked: 'I beseech you in the name of Allah are you the person whom the messenger(SAW) of Allah had born on his shoulders when he began to break the Idol of al - ka'ba, even if he wanted to reach the sky he would not hesitate to do that, or you?' he said: 'certainly you', 'I beseech you in the name of Allah, are you the person to whom the messenger of Allah(SAW) had said: You are the owner of my banner either in This World or in the Here after», or you?, he replied: 'certainly you'. me?, he replied: 'certainly you' , 'Ali(A.S) asked: 'I beseech you in the name of Allah, are you the one who spent and gave as a sadaqah (charity) before the hands of the messenger's consultation, where the latter had consulted him, or me? especially when Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious - will blame a folk through His verse: }Is it that you are afraid of spending sums in charity before your private consultation (with him){[58:13], he replied: 'certainly you', 'Al(A.S) asked: 'I beseech you in the name of Allah, are you the one whom the Messenger of Allah(SAW) had said for the sake of him to fatima(A.S): I gave you in marriage to the first person who believed in me and the best of the people regarding the religion of Islam», or you?, he replied: 'certainly you', and 'Ali(A.S) was still counting his virtues to Abu Bakr which Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious - had granted short of the others, where Abu Bakr was saying to him: 'certainly you', he said: 'By This and its similarity he(A.S) deserved to bear the responsibility to run the matters of the nation of Muhammed(SAW). 'Ali(A.S) said to him: 'so what made you tempted against Allah, His Messenger, and His religion where you are not characterized by what His religion needs'.

He said: 'Abu Bakr wept and said: You are true - Abu al - Hassan - give me a period to check my self back this day in order to manage my self and to think of what you've said to me'. He said: 'Ali(A.S) said to Abu Bakr then: 'You are given the enough time to think well - Abu Bakr', then Abu Bakr went back to his house and closed the door in order to be in his own privacy with himself alone, where Umar was coming frequently to his house in order to meet him concerning what he had heard about his meeting with 'Ali(A.S). So Abu Bakr slept that night and he saw the Messenger of Allah(SAW) in his vision, where Abu Bakr asked him after standing to greet him: 'Messenger of Allah did you command me with some thing I didn't obey?, the Messenger of Allah(SAW) then said in the vision: How can I get you after you have antagonized Allah and His Messenger?!, and you have antagonized those who are loyal to Allah and His Messenger!? so give the right to its owner». I said: «who is its owner?», he said: 'He who blamed you due to it, and he is 'Ali', he said: 'I returned to him his right, Messenger of Allah, and I obeyed your command', he said: 'he woke up and wept, then said to 'Ali(A.S): stretch your hand in order to recognize you as a caliph', and he handed him the matters of the Muslims. Abu Bakr said to him: 'Go to the Mosque of the Messenger(SAW) and tell the people about what has happened this night with me and about what I have seen in my vision, so that I am able to hand you over the leadership and in order to get out of it'. 'Ali(A.S) said to him: 'Yes" , then he went from 'Ali's house pale, where Umar encountered him for he had a request then he asked him: 'How are you the successor of Allah's Messenger?', and Abu Bakr told him about what he had seen in his vision and about what had happened between him and 'Ali(A.S). Umar said: 'I beseech you in the name of Allah, - the successor of the Messenger of Allah - not to be seduced by the Magic of the people of Hashim, so Umar was striving diligently to make Abu Bakr change his mind and to let him abandon his intention to inform the people about his vision, then he tried to ornament what he is appointed to, and ordered him to preserve firm his leadership and to act upon this. 'Ali came to the mosque on the fixed appointment where he didn't see any one of them, and felt their evil, so he sat at the grave of the Messenger(SAW), then Umar came and said to him: 'Your aim will not become true -'Ali', so 'Ali knew about the matter and returned to his house.

Chapter 23

CHAPTER ON THE FIFTY QUALITIES AND BEYOND

THE FIFTY RIGHTS WHICH 'ALI BIN AL - HUSSEIN - THE MASTER OF THE DEVOTEES(A.S) - HAD WRITTEN TO SOME OF HIS COMPANIONS, (THE MESSEAGE OF RIGHTS): - Abu Hamza ath - thumali said: 'This is the Message of 'Ali bin al - Hussein(A.S) to some of his copanions: Bear in mind that Allah - The | Exalted and The Glorious - has due rights upon you and around you correlated with every movement you made, or with any calmness you made, or with any condition you became in, or with any rank you attained, or with any sense of your senses you used, or with any organ you exploited, so holify the rights of Allah - The Blessed and The Exalted - upon you concerning what he made obligatory upon you for the sake of Him self in relation to his right which is the origin of all rights, then holify what Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious - has made obligatory upon you for the sake of your self from your head till your feet including all your senses. So He - The Exalted and the Glrious - has made for he sake of your tongue a due right upon you; for your ears due right upon you; for your eyes a due right upon you, for your hands a due right upon you; for your legs and feet a due right upon you; for your stomach a due right upon you; and for your private parts a due right upon you, since all your acts and deeds will be through these seven senses, then He - The Exalted and The Glorious - has made for the sake of your deeds due rights upon you. So He made for the sake of your fast a due right upon you; for your charity a due right upon you; for your guidance a due right upon you, and for the rest of your deeds due rights upon you. Then He will give the others the due rights which are taken from you and which are due upon you, and specifically to those who have the rights upon you, so He made them the due rights of your leaders or (Imams), then the rights of your people, then the rights of your kinship, for these rights will branch into the

subdivision rights, so the rights of your leaders or Imams to the right of the leadership upon you, then the right of your leader concerning the knowledge (Giving the knowledge), then the right of your leader concerning the leadership, for every leader is an Imam, and the rights of your people are three and the right of them is due upon you owing to the leadership of you, then the right for the sake of your people concerning the knowledge, for the illiterate person should be under the leader's patronage. Then the due rights of your people upon you the husbands and wives, and the women made lawful for them and owned by them. Knowing that the rights of your people are numerous, and they are linked much as their degree of kinship or relationship is concerned, and the most powerful of which are those related to the rights of your mother upon you, then the right of your father, then right of your son, then the right of your brother, then the closer relatives; where the most prior of them will be according to the degree of their kinship, then the rights of your patron who sustains you, then the right of your guardian regarding his current sustenance for you; then the rights of the favor makers upon you, the right of the caller for the prayer; the right of your leader (Imam) regarding your prayer; the right of your associate; the right of your neighbor; the right of your companion; the right of your partner, the right of your wealth; the right of your rival which dictates you to recall your money back from him, then the right of your rival which dictates him to recall his debt back from you; the right of your friend; the right of your litigant who is suing you; the right of he who consults you; the right of your consultant; the right of he who seeks your advice, the right of your advisor; the right of he who is older than you; the right of he who is younger than you; the right of he who begs you; the right of he whom you ask, the right of he who offended you either deliberately or undeliberately; the right of your sect's people, then the right of other religions' people, and finally the current rights in relation to their degrees of both their cases and reasons as well upon you. So Tuoba (Tree in Paradise) for he whom Allah has sustained in order to perform what He imposed upon him of rights, and showed success to him. As for the greatest right of Allah upon you, it consists in worshiping Him and not to join any partner or thing with Him; and when you act upon this faithfully He will have the due right upon Himself to protect you against the humiliation of both This World and the Hereafter; but the due right upon you dictates you to subdue your soul to Allah and to obey Him; and the right of your tongue dictates you to protect it against slandering the people, where you should let it get accustomed to say what is good and to leave the useless curious inquiries, and to say good when mentioning the people; the right of your ears consists in the abandonment of listening to or hearing the people's slanders; or hearing the unlawful sayings; the right of your eyes consists in turning your sight from what you are forbidden to look at; the right of your hand upon you consists in preventing it from reaching what is made unlawful to you; the right of your feet consists in preventing them to walk towards what is not made lawful to you; since you'll use them when walking on the path on The Day of Resurrection, so you should control them now in order not to lead you to slip in Hell on the Here after; the right of your stomach upon you consists in preventing it from being the container of the illicit food; and to get accustomed not to have enough of it; the right of your private parts upon you consists in protecting them from committing adultery and from being under the sights of the others (Naked); the right of the prayer upon you consists in knowing that it is the command of Allah when you perform it before Him, so when you comprehend this fact you'll certainly perform it in a way very much like the performance of the humble, subdued devotee who seeks the pleasure of Allah and who fears; invokes; glorifies Him and for whom you stand to perform your prayer to the degree that you'll feel you perform it with all your senses and heart, and you'll act upon its limits and rights; the right of the pilgrimage upon you consists in knowing that it is the command of Allah, and that it is the position where you can confess all your sins and you can be purified where your repentance will be accepted and where the obligations of Allah are performed; the right of the fast consists in knowing that it is like a veil which Allah has made on your tongue; ears; eyes, stomach, and private parts in order to protect you from Hell on the Here after; and when you abandon it, you tear that veil which Allah has made to protect you from Hell; the right of charity upon you consists in knowing that it is your repertory and deposit at your Lord - The Exalted and The Glorious - which needs no witness or testimony on the Day of the Resurrection, and when you know such a fact, you will find that all what you have secretly payed is kept and saved on your behalf better than what you've payed out wardly and openly; and you'll know that your charity will dismiss all kinds of tribulations and calamities in This World, and will protect you from Hell on the Here after; the right of guidance consists in knowing that you should do it for the sake of Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious - where you do not seek His creatures, and you do not aim due to it but the Allah's Mercy as well as the safety of your soul when you'll meet Him; the right of the ruler upon you consists in knowing that you are made a seduction and a turmoil for him, where he is tried severely because of you concerning what Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious has given him a free hand upon you; so you shouldn't oppose him or you shouldn't expose your self to his displeasure lest to perish your self by your self, which means that you'll become his partner regarding all what he offended you; the right of your learned man consists in glorifying and respecting his meeting, in the good listening to him; in coming to him often, in preventing your self to raise your voice above his voice, in keeping silent in his assembly where you shouldn't talk with any one or slander him before any person; in defending him when any one slanders him; in veiling his mistakes and in showing his good merits; in abandoning his enemies; and in preventing your self to antagonize any one loyal to him; for if you do so, Allah's angels will testify that you came to his assembly and you learned his religions knowledge for the sake of Allah - Splendor Be His Name - and not for the sake of the people. As for the right of your ruler regarding the power and reign, it consists in your obedience to him and in your abandonment of disobeying him except in relation to the matters which displease Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious - since there is no obedience to any creature concerning the displeasure of the creator; as for the right of your people upon the ruler it consists in kowing that they became your people due to your power and their weakness; so you should treat them justly, and you should be as a merciful patron or father, and you should excuse them due to their ignorance, and to stop hastening their punishment where you should thank Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious - for what He has given you the power upon them. As for the right of your people regarding the knowledge, it consists in knowing that Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious - has verily made you a trustee or a guardian for them due to what He has given you of knowledge and opened the gates of His treasures for you, so if you were good in teaching or supplying your people with knowledge, and you didn't become bored or angry with them, Allah will increase you from His virtues. But if you prevent your people from reaching your knowledge or if you become angry with them when asking your knowledge, Allah will prescribe the due right upon Him self to captivate the knowledge and its glory from you, and will dismiss you from the hearts of the others. As for the right of your wife upon you, it consists in respecting her, and in being merciful to her, even that your right upon her is entitled better and obligatory, so you should be merciful to her since she is your prisoner; you should feed and dress her, and you should forgive her when she seems ignorant. As for the right of your servant upon you, it consists in knowing that he or she is the creature of your Lord and the son of your father and mother (Adam and Eve), and your flesh and blood, where you can't own him since he is created by Allah, and you haven't created any thing of his senses, or you haven't even created his provision, but Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious - has sufficed you through his services, then He made him under your control and He entrusted him to you in order to preserve and keep what you have done of good for him, so be kind and good to him exactly as Allah is good and kind to you, so if you hate him you may replace him; but you shouldn't hurt the creature of Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious - where No might and no power but in Allah.

The right of your mother upon you consists in that she conceived and born you where no one can bear the other, and she gave you the fruit of her heart where no one gives the other any thing, and she protected you with all her senses, and she didn't care to remain starved in order to feed you, and to remain thirsty in order to quench your thirst; and to remain without clothes in order to dress you; and to sacrifice in order to save you, and to remain awakened in order to let you sleep; and she protected you from warm and cold weathers in order to own you; where you are not able to thank her but by the help of The Most High Allah and His success. As for the right of your father upon you, it consists in knowing that he is your origin, and without him you are nothing; so whatever you notice of a well fare or grace in you, and you notice what admires you in your self, you should know always that this grace was from your origin or from your father. So be grateful to Allah and praise Him due to that, where no might or power but in Allah. As for the right of your son upon you, it consists in knowing that he is from you and joined to you either with his good or evil deeds in This World, and that you'll be responsible regarding what you've made him get accustomed to the good disposition and the good faith in his Lord - The Exalted and The Glorious - as well as your help to him to obey Allah, so act upon His command very much like he who knows exactly that he will be rewarded due to his good bringing up to his son, and that he will be punished due to his offense to his son. As for the right of your brother upon you, it consists in knowing that he is your hand; honor; and power. So do not make him neither a weapon in the way of Allah's disobedience, Nor a means for oppressing the creatures of Allah, Nor leave him without victorizing him against his enemy or without advising him; so if he obeys Allah, you should support him; otherwise let Allah be generous to you better than him, where no power or might but in Allah. As for the right of your patron or guidance who shows you his sustenance, it consists in knowing that he supported you with his wealth and he emancipated you from the humiliation of the slavery and its loneliness, into the freedom and its amiability, so he emancipated you from the imprisonment of slavery, and he unfettered your bondage's shackle, and has set you free from such a prison where you became the owner of your self and made you unoccupied in order to worship your Lord where you know that he is entitled better than any one else of you both in your life or after your death, and that his dominion upon you is considered a duty for which you should subdue to him by your self, and you should respond to what he is in need to, where no power or might but in Allah. As for the right of your patron to whom you showed your sustenance, it consists in knowing that Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious - has made your emancipation as a means for him, and as a veil for you from Hell, and that your quick reward will be his legacy, if he has no very close relations, as a reward for you due to what you spent of your money for him, where you'll be rewarded Paradise on the Her after. As for the right of the favor's maker upon you, it consists in that you should thank him, and consists in mentioning his favor and saying the good praise, and in being very faithful to him when supplicating your Lord - - The Exalted and The Glorious -for him, and when you do so, you'll be considered as if you thanked him inwardly and out wardly, and if you are able to reward him some day you should do that. As for the right of the caller for the prayer upon you, it consists in knowing that he is the reminder of you regarding your Lord - The Exalted and The Glorious -, and the caller to your luck, and as the helper for you to perform what Allah has made obligatory upon you, so you should thank him for that exactly as your gratefulness to he who was very generous with you. As for the right of your Imam upon you regarding your prayer, it consists in knowing that he is entitled to be the employed person between you and your Lord - The Exalted and The Glorious - when he recites on your behalf, or instead of you in prayer and you are allowed to be silent, and he invokes Allah for the sake of you where you do not invoke for him, and he relieves you from being in the first position before Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious - so if there was any loss regarding the prayer, he'll bear the responsibility for that instead of you, but if he performs the prayer perfectly, you'll be considered his partner, where you have no favor upon him, so he protects you by himself and your prayer by his prayer, to the extent that you should thank him as much as he does. As for the right of your associate upon you, it consists in showing him mercy from your side and treating him justly regarding the compliment, and you shouldn't leave him alone except when he gives you his permission, where he when sitting in your assembly, has the permission to leave you at any time he wants and without asking your permission; you should forgive him for his slipping mistakes; you should preserve his graces; and you should tell him always what is good. As for the right of your neighbor upon you, it consists in being good to him when he is absent; in being generous to him when he is present; in victorizing him when he is oppressed; in prohibiting your self to trace his mistakes or looking at his private or secret things; you should veil his mistakes and the wrong doings, you should advise him when you notice that he accepts your advice, between you and him; you shouldn't leave him when suffering, you should help him when stumbling; you should forgive him when making a mistake, and you should deal with him honestly, where no might or power but in Allah. As for the right of your companion upon you, it consists in being good and just to him, in being generous to him as he is generous to you; in showing mercy to him, and in not showing any harm to him. where no power or might but in Allah. As for the right of your partner upon you; it consists in being his sustainer when he is absent, and his patron when he is present, and in not taking any decision without sharing him, when making such a decision and in not doing any thing without taking his opinion, where you should preserve his wealth, and you shouldn't betray him regarding what is dear or undear to him, knowing that the Hand of Allah - The Blessed and The Exalted - is with the two partners unless they deceive each other, where no might or power but in Allah. As for the right of your wealth upon you, it consists in not obtaining it but lawfully, and not spending it but righteously, and not being generous to him who doesn't praise you, so use it regarding the obedience of your Lord; and avoid being stingy so that you'll be sad and blamed even if you are wealthy, where no power or might but in Allah. As for the right of your rival upon you who asks you to return back his debt when you become wealthy, it consists in giving him his debt back, and in making him convinced by your good speech when you are broken, so you relieve your self from him fairly. As for the right of the friend, it consists in not cheating, deceiving and betraying him, where you should fear Allah - The Blessed and The Exalted - due to him. As for the right of the litigant upon you, who sues you, if his claim against you is true, you should be his witness against your self so that you are fair and just to him, and you should give him his due right in full, but if his claim against you is wrong, you should be merciful to him then, and you shouldn't displease your Lord regarding his condition, where no might or power but in Allah. As for the right of your litigant upon your self, whom you sue, it consists in saying good to him when your claim is right, and in not denying his right; but if your claim is wrong, you should fear Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious -; turn to Him in repentance; and drop your claim against him. As for the right of he who seeks your opinion, it consists in giving your consultation to him if you feel that he has a thought or an idea; but if you feel that you do not know, then you should lead him to him who knows better than you. As for the right of he who gives you his consultation, it consists in not charging him regarding what is against your opinion, and you should praise Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious - when he agrees or accepts your opinion. As for the right of he who seeks your advice, it consists in giving him yours where you should show mercy to him. As for the right of your advisor upon you; it consists in being gentle with him and in listening to him, so if his opinion is right, you should praise Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious -, but if his opinion is wrong, you should show mercy to him, and avoid charging him even if he is wrong; and you should excuse him due to that unless he pays any attention to him, where no power or might but in Allah. As for the right of he who is older than you, it consists in respecting him for his age, reverencing him due to his deep knowledge in Islam long before you, leaving him when feeling that there will be a quarrel between you and him; avoid fastening him in the road, avoid ridiculing him; and you should endure him when he becomes ignorant owing to the sanctity of Islam. As for the right of he who is younger than you, it consists in showing your mercy to him; in forgiving, and in sustaining him. As for the right of the beggar, upon you, it consists in giving him only his needs, but the right of he who is asked, upon you, when he gives you, consists in your acceptance to his gift by showing your gratefulness to him, and acknowledging his virtues upon you, and you should excuse him when he stops giving you his gift. The right of he who makes you happy when mentioning him only for the sake of Allah, without asking any reward, consists in praising first Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious - Then in thanking him. The right of he who offends you consists in forgiving him, where you'll be the winner even when you know that your forgiveness toward him will harm him, and you will be won, for Allah - The Blessed and The Exalted - said: }But indeed if any do help and defend themselves after a wrong (done) to them, against such there is no cause for blame{[41:42]. The right of your sect's people upon you consists in wishing for them safety; in showing mercy to them, in being kind to he who offends them; in reforming them, in thanking the well doer of them; in keeping them safe against your offense, and in wishing for them what you wish for your self or hating for them what you hate for your self, and you should consider their old men exactly as your father, and their young men as your brother, and their old women as your mother; and their children as your children so that you are just to them as long as they fulfill their oath towards Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious.

CHAPTER ON THE SEVENTY QUALITIES AND BEYOND

THE REWARD OF HE WHO ASKS ALLAH'S THE EXALTED AND THE GLORIOUS - FORGIVENESS, SEVENTY TIMES WHEN PERFORMING AL- WITR PRAYERS (SPECIAL PRAYER PERFORMING AFTER MIDNIGHT): Abu Abdullah(A.S) said: He who says when performing his addition prayer: 'I ask Allah's forgiveness and I turn to Him in repentance' seventy times when performing the prayer, and keeps on doing so till he passes one year, Allah will record him, in Him; as one of those who asks Allah's forgiveness at the hours of early dawn, and he will become worthy of Allah's - The Exalted and The Glorious im- forgiveness.

THE REWARD OF HE ASKS ALLAH'S - THE EXALTED AND THE GLORIOUS - FORGIVENESS, SEVENTY TIMES AFTER THE DAWN PRAYER: Abu ja'afar (A.S) said: He who Allah's forgiveness seventy times after dawn's prayer Allah forgives to him.

THE REWARD OF HE WHO ASKS ALLAH'S - THE EXALTED AND THE GLORIOUS - SEVENTY TIMES ON EACH DAY OF THE MONTH OF SHA'BAN: Abu Abdullah(A.S) said: He who says on each day of Sha'ban' I ask Allah's forgiveness - Who is the only God and no god but He the Compassionate; the Merciful, the Living, the Self - subsisting, and Eternal, I turn to Him in repentance', Seventy times, he will be recorded in the clear horizon, I asked : What is the clear horizon?, he said: It is a bottom between the two hands of the throne including rivers equal to the numbers of the stars, and they flow from its two cups.

- Al - 'Abbas bin Hilal reported, I heard Abu al - Hassan' Ali bin Mussa al - Ridha(A.S) as saying: He who fasts one day of Sha'ban hoping for the reward of Allah, will be admitted into Paradise, and he who asks Allah's forgiveness seventy times on each day of Sha'ban, he will be gathered on the Day of Resurrection with the Messenger's(SAW) group, and it will be a due upon Allah to grant him the honor; and he who gives a piece of date as a charity in Sha'ban, Allah will prohibit Hell from reaching his body; and he who fasts three days of Sha'ban and linked them to the days of Ramadan, Allah will record for him a reward equals to two months of fasting instead.

THE BANNER OF PRAISING CONSISTS OF SEVENTY PARTS: Ibn 'Abbas reported, the Messenger of Allah(SAW) as saying: Gabriel (A.S) came to me happy and showing a good omen, I asked; 'My dear Gabriel, what is the position of my brother and cousin 'Ali bin Aby Talib(A.S) in the sight of his Lord, despite your happiness?» he (A.S) said: 'I swear by He Who sent you with the prophecy and has chosen you regarding the Message, I haven't descended This time but because of This. Muhammed, Allah greets you both, and He said: 'Muhammed is the prophet of My Mercy, and 'Ali is he who defends My Evidence, so I will not torture he who is loyal to him, even if he disobeys Me, and I'll not show Mercy to him who antagonizes him even if he obeys Me', the Messenger of Allah(SAW) said: 'When it is the Day of Resurrection, Gabriel(A.S) will come to me holding the banner of praising which consists of seventy parts, each part will be wider than both the sun and the moon, where I and 'Ali will be on a chair of 'A R - Ridwan chairs above the shrine of the holy shrines, and I'll give it to 'Ali bin Aby Talib(A.S) after holding it'. Umar bin al - Khattab will say: 'Messenger of Allah, how can 'Ali bear holding the banner though you mentioned that it consists of seventy parts, each part will be wider than both the sun and the moon?', the prophet(SAW) said: 'When it is the Day of Resurrection, Allah will give 'Ali a power like that of Gabriel, and a light like that of Adam, and a leniency like that of Ridwan, and a beauty like that of Joseph, and a voice like that of David (Dawud), and were it not that David was a preacher (or a public speaker) in the gardens, he would have been given a voice like his voice, and 'Ali will be the first person who drinks from al - Salsabil and al - Zanjabil, knowing that none of his any feet treads on the path (on The Day of Resurrection) but his another one replaces it in the same position, since 'Ali and his Shiites win a position, in the sight of Allah, due to which all those who came first and who came later will envy him.

USURY CONSISTS OF SEVENTY PARTS: 'Ali bin Aby Talib(A.S) reported, the Messenger of Allah(SAW) as saying in his injunction to him: 'Ali, Usury consists of seventy parts, the lowest rank of it is very much like a man who makes a sexual intercourse with his mother in the mosque of Mecca. 'Ali, one Dirham of usury is greater than seventy illicit sexual intercourses (incest) in the house of Allah (in Mecca).

THE SPEECH OF THE DEVOTEE WHO STAYED IN HELL FOR SEVENTY AUTUMNS: Abu Ja'far(A.S) said: A devotee stayed in Hell for seventy autumns where each autumn equals to seventy years - then he asked Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious - by the virtues of Muhammed and his house hold to show mercy to him, so Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious - inspired to Gabriel(A.S) to descend to His devotee in order to pick up him, and Gabriel asked: 'Lord! how can I descend into Hell?', and Allah replied: 'I commanded it to be cold and safe for you', He asked: 'Lord how can I know where he is now?' and the Lord said: 'He is in a pit of Sijjin (In Hell)', and Gabriel descended where his aim is directed into the position and found the face of this devotee sunk in fire, then he pulled him from Hell. Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious - said: 'My devotee, how long have you been asking Me when in Hell?' and he said: 'uncountable times, my Lord', and Allah said: 'I swear by My Honor, were it not you who insisted on calling me, I would have expanded the period of your dwelling in Hell, but I determined upon My Self. to forgive any person who asks Me by the virtues of Muhammed and his house hold, and cancel all his wrong doings he made against Me, and I forgive you This Day.

ON HIM WHO NARRATED THAT THIS NATION WILL BE DIVIDED INTO SEVENTY PARTIES(SECTS): Ja'far bin Muhammed reported, on the authority of his grand father and his father al - Hussein bin 'Ali bin Aby Talib, peace be upon them both: I heard the Messenger of Allah(SAW) as saying: The people of Moses(A.S) had been divided into seventy one sects after him, one sect will survive on the Day of Resurrection, and the other seventy sects will be in Hell. The people of Jesus Christ had been divided into seventy two sects after him, one of these sects will survive on the Day of Resurrection and the other sects will be in Hell. Where the people of my nation will be divided into seventy three sects, one of them will survive, but the other sects will be in Hell».

ALLAH - THE EXALTED AND THE GLORIOUS - HAS GRANTED THE MIND SEVENTY FIVE MERITS AND GRANTED THE IGNORANCE SEVENTY FIVE MERITS: Sama'ah bin Mahran reported: I was with Abu Abdullah(A.S) when a congregation of his loyal people were at his assembly, and they mentioned the mind and the ignorance. Sama'ah said: 'May I be given as ransom to you, we do not know more than what you've taught us,. Abu Abdullah(A.S) said: 'Allah - The Exalted and Splendor be His praise - had created the mind, and it was the first creation He created regarding the spiritual creatures from His light on the right side of the Throne, and He said: Come, and it came, then He said to it: Go and it went, then Allah - The Blessed and the Exalted said: I created you in a very great creation, and I holified you above all My creation', then he said: Allah, after that, created the ignorance from the turbulent gloomy sea, and He said to it: 'Go and it went', then He said to it: 'Come and it came', He said to it: 'You have become bragart,' then He cursed it, and He granted the mind seventy five qualities, so when the ignorance saw what glory had Allah holified the mind, and what He gave it, it concealed antagonism against it. Then the ignorance said: ' O Lord! This is a creature , like me, which you've created holified, and equipped with power, and I am against it since I can't match it, so grant me merits like those you've granted it'. He said: 'I will, but if you disobey Me after that, I'll dismiss you out of My Mercy as well as your merits', it said: 'I accept', then Allah granted it seventy five merits equal in number to the merits of the mind:

Peace be upon them all. where success can not be reached but when realizing the mind and its merits and evading the ignorance and its qualities. May Allah lead us to the success, both we and you, for the sake of His obedience and pleasure.

Chapter 26

CHAPTER AS FROM ONE TO A HUNDRED

'Abdullah bin 'Abbas said: Two Jewish who are brothers among the chiefs of Jews in Medina came and said: You people, we were told from our prophet that a Prophet has appeared in Tuhama who depreciated the Jew's minds and defames their religion, and we fear of being quited from what our ancestors acted upon; whoever is this prophet? If he was that about whom David has given the good news, whe would believe in and follow him, and if he would not combine words, say poetry and over-power us with his tongue, we will fight with him by ourselves and our properties, so who is this prophet? The (ALMUHAJEREEN) and the (ALANSSAR) replied: Our prophet, to whom and to his offspring may Allah's Blessings be granted - has died. They said: praise be to Allah, which of you is his executor, for Allah - Who is Great and Glorious hath never sent a prophet to his people whiout having an executor who would pay his debt for him after his death, and relate from him What his Lord hath ordered him. The (ALMUHAJEREEN) and the (ALANSSAR) pointed to Abu Bakr and said: He is his executor. They asked Abu Bakr: We shall refer to you some question which are referred to the executors; and ask you about what the executors have being asked. Abu Bakr said to them: Ask whatever you wish, and I shall inform you about the answer, if Allah will. One of them said: What are the estimations of me and you in the sight of Allah Who is Great and Glorious? What is about a soul inside another soul when there is neither a tie of relationship nor kinship regarding them? What is a grave which has travelled with his inmate? Were does the sun rise from? Where does it set in? Where was the Place in which the Sun has risen, then it has never risen in it after that? Where is Paradise? And where is Hell? Does your Lord bear or be born? What is the direction in which being your Lord's Person? What are the two present things? What are the two absent things? What are the two which show hatred to each other? Who is the One? Who are the two?

Who are the three? What are the four? What are the Four? What are the Five? What are the six? What are the Seven? What are the Eight? Who are the Nine? What are the Ten? Who are the Eleven? What are the Twelve? What are the Twenty? What are the Thirty? What are the Forty? What are the Fifty? Who are the Sixty? Who are the Seventy? What is Thamanun [Eighty]? What are the Ninety? What is a hundred? Abu Bakr remained answering nothing and we were afraid that people may spostatize Islam, so I went to the House of 'Ali bin Abu Talib(A.S) and said to him: 'Ali, the chiefs of Jews came to Medina and asked Abu Bakr some questions and he remained answereing nothing. 'Ali(A.S) smiled and said: This is the Day of which Allah's Messenger(SAW) has promised me, and he came walking before me, his way of walking was the very same as that of Allah's Messenger(SAW), till he sat down in the place in which Allah's Messenger(SAW) had sat, he turned then to the two Jews and said: You two Jews, draw near to me and ask me what you have asked the Sheikh; the two Jews asked: Who are you? He answered them: I am 'Ali bin Abu Talib, son of 'Abd al-Muttalib, brother of the Prophet, husband of his daughter Fatima, father of al-Hassan and al-Hussien, his trustee in all his manners, the owner of every fine quality and honour, the secretary of the Prophet(SAW), one of the two Jews asked him: What are the estimations of me and you in Allah's Sight? He replied: I am a believer since I have known my self, while you are an infidel since you have known yourself, and I do not kown what Allah will cause in you after ward, Jew. The Jew asked: What is about a soul inside another soul without a tie of relationship or kinship between both? He replied: That was Jonah(A.S) when in the belly of the Whale. He asked: What is a grave which has travelled with his inmate? He replied: That was the Whale when it travelled with Jonah in its belly throughout the seven seas. He asked: Where does the sun rise from? He replied: It rises from the Place between the devil's two horns. He asked: Where does it set in? He replied: It sets in a very hot source, as my friend Allah's Messenger(SAW) has told me: Do not pray while it is rising or setting till it becomes as far as the distance of one or two spears. He asked: Where was the Place in which the sun has risen, then it has never risen in it afterwards? He replied: That was the sea which Allah had split for the sons of Israel, the people of Moses(A.S). He asked: Does your Lord bear or be borne? He replied. Verily, my Lord. Who is Great and Glorious bears everything with His Might and nothing bears Him. He commented: What is about His - Who is Great and Glorious - Saying: And eight will that Day, bear the Throne of thy Lord above them[69:17], He replied: Oh

Jew, did not you know that to Allah belongs what is in the heavens and on earth, and all between them, and all beneath the soil, so everything is based upon the soil, and the soil is based upon the Might, and the Might bears everything. He asked: Where is Paradise, and Where is in the Heaven, and as for Hell, it is beneath the earth. He asked: What is the direction in which being thy Lord's Person? 'Ali bin Aby Talib(A.S) said to me: Ibbn 'Abbas, bring me fire and fuel, and when I brought him with fire and fuel he sat fire to them, then he said: Jew, where is the face of this fire? He replied: I find no face for it. He said: My Lord is Most Great and Glorious above this similitude, to Him belong the east and the West, and where soever you turn, there is Allah's Person. He asked. What are the two present things? He replied: They are the heavens and the earth which do not be concealed for instance. He asked: What are the two absent things? He replied: they are death and life whose times can not be appointed. He asked: What are the two things which show hatred to each other? He replied: They are day and night. He asked: Who is the One. her replied: He is Allah Who is Great and Glorious> He asked: Who are the two? He replied: They are Adam and Eve. He asked: Who are the three? He replied: The christians told lies against Allah Who is Great and Glorious when they had said }One of three[5:73]. Allah has taken neither a wife nor a son. He asked : What are the four? He replied: They are: The Qur'an, the Psalm, the Torah, the Bible. He asked What are the five? He replied: They are the five prescribed prayers. He asked: What are the six? with his Lord forty nights. He asked: What are the fifty? He replied: Noah lived among his people fifty short of a thousand years. Who are the sixty? He replied: It is Allah's - Who is Great and Glorious - saying regarding the expiation of Zihar(1) : But if any is unable to do so, he should feed sixty indigent ones[58:4], if he could not fast for two months consecutively. He asked: Who are the seventy? He replied: Moses chose seventy men among his people for the term of communion with his Lord - Who is Great and Glorious -. He asked: What is Thamanun [eighty]? He replied: It is a village in Jazira called Thamanun in which Noah embarked on the Ark and it rested on Mount. and Allah drowned the people. He asked: What are the ninety? He replied: They are the ninety cages of brutes bore by Noah(A.S) on the loaded Ark. He asked: What is a hundred? He replied: The period of life of David(A.S) was sixty years, but Adam(A.S) had gifted him forty years from his period of life, and when Adam was about to die, he denied and so his offspring is ungrateful.

He asked him: youn man, describe Muhammad to me as if I am looking at him, so I will believe in him now? The leader of the Faithful(A.S) wept and said: Jew, you have agitated my sadness, my friend Allah's Messenger (SAW) had a wide forehead, joined eyebrows, black and large eyes, smooth cheeks, a bent nose, a thin column of hair in his chest, a thick beard, bright teeth, a neck as a sliver's jug, he had few hairs as from his upper part of the chest to the navel wrapped as if they were a bar of caphor, he had no hairs other than them in his body; he was neither very tall nor very short, when he walked with people, he would cover them with his light; when he walked he would walk neither slowly nor quickly; he had rounded heels, kind feet, then waist, his turban was called as - sabab [the clouds], his sword was called zul-Fiqar, his mule was called Duldul, his donkey was called al-Ya'fur, his she - camel was called al-'adba', his mare was called lizas, and his stick was called al-Mamshuq. Good management overcomes part of the hard living (The management of one's life), solicitude leads to the midway of decrepitude; no one will feel poverty when he is economical; no one will be misled when he asks consultation; favor can not be done but to a noble - origin person; there is a good or a bad result for every thing; and the fruit of any favor is when hastening it, and he who is certain of compensation, he should be generous when given a donation; and he who flaps his thighs with his palms when afflicted by a calamity, his reward will be an abortive; the excellent deeds of a person consist in waiting the relief of Allah

- The Exalted and The Glorious.

He who depressed his parents, he there by disobeyed them. Call down the provision by paying the Sadaqah. Dismiss the waves of affliction by resorting the supplication before the befalling of the distress. I swear by He Who cleaved open the seed and created the breath of life, the ordeal is swifter than the fall of the flood from up the hill to its base and faster than the running of the fades, so invoke Allah for security against the overexertion of distress, since the latter means the religion's absence.

The delighted man is he who is warned and took lessons by others' experiences, so familiarize your selves with the good dispositions, since the Muslim devotee will attain the rank of a fasting and praying person by his good manners. He who drinks wine, and he knows that it is illicit (deprived), Allah will make him drink the pus of the people of Hell (on the Day of Resurrection) even if he is forgiven. No vow regarding a disobedience, and NO oath regarding a severance of relationship. The propagandist whose deeds he abortive is very much like the hurler without a weapon. A woman should wear perfume for her husband. He who is killed defending his wealth is considered a martyr,. and the prejudiced person will not be considered thanked or rewarded. No oath of a son against his father, or the wife's oath will be against her husband. No fast will be till night but with the mentioning of Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious.

No bedouinism (desert life) after the Emigration to Medina; and no Emigration after conquest (victory) of Mecca, resort to trade for richness consists in it for you and will protect you from what is in the hands of the people (or from begging), since Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious - likes the professional faithful devotee. No deeds dearer to Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious - than the prayer. So nothing should attract you than to observe it in its dedicated times, regarding the matters of The World. Don't descend swiftly upon the matter before its appointed time for you'll feel regretful, and don't let the long expectation over whelm you till your hearts become tough. Be Merciful with your weak people, and ask Allah's - The Exalted and The Glorious - Mercy for them. Avoid slandering the Muslim, since the latter doesn't slander his brother, and Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious - has forbidden that where He said: Nor speak ill of each other behind their backs. Would any of you like to eat flesh of his dead brother?[49:12]. The Muslim shouldn't combine his two hands together when praying and when being straight up between the hand of Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious - resembling the atheist people - it means the magus. any one of you should sit, when meal is served, the sitting of a devotee, and he should eat sitting on the ground, and he should avoid drinking when standing straight up. when any one afflicts his sumpter when praying, he should bury it and spit on it or he should render it in his clothes till he goes. The worst turning during the prayer breaks it, for the one who does that, he should then start his prayer with cutting for prayer, observing the prayer, and with the exclamation that Allah is Great. He who recites "Say: He is Allah the One and Only" before the sun rises [eleven times], and " We have indeed revealed this (Message) in the Night of Power" and: " Allah! There is no god but He - the living.. [2:255]", he will be given assurances regarding the saving of his wealth. He who recites "Say: He is Allah the One and Only" and "We have indeed revealed this (Message).. " before the sun rises, no sin will afflict him during that day even if Satan sought to compile him to commit sins.

He who doesn't follow us will perish. Rolling up the dress purifies it. Allah - The Blessed and The Exalted - said: And thy garments keep free from stain[74:4], which means rolling up your garments. licking up honey is considered a healing against every disease where Allah - The Blessed and The Exalted - said: }There issues from within their bodies a drink of varying colours. Wherein is healing for men[16:69]; This would be in addition to the recitation of the Qur'an.

Chewing gum may dissolve the sputum; open your meal with salt, for if only the people knew what salt had of benefits they would have chosen it instead of the experienced Antidote, and he who opens his meal with salt, seventy kinds of diseases will flee from him, for Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious - is the Only One Who Knows how many diseases will flee from this person. Pour cold water on the fevered person in summer for it relieves its warmth. Fast during three days of each month since they are equal to the fasting of the whole age. We fast two Thursdays including one Wednesday between them. for Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious - created Hell on Wednesday. If any one of you wants to get his need, he should wake up early on Thursday, for the Messenger of Allah(SAW) said: O Allah! Bless the earliness of my people on Thursday, and he should recite when he goes out side his house the last verses of (Ali-'Imran)[3]; The verses of Sura(al-kursi)[2:255]; the verses of (The night of power or Al Qadr)[97], and the verses of Al Fatiha[1] for they include the power of helping the people to attain their needs in both This World and the Hereafter. You should use the thick garments for he whose garment is thin, his religion would become thin as well.

The devotee shouldn't stand up for prayer when wearing a transparent garment. Turn to Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious - with repentance and seek to attain His love, for Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious - loves those who turn to Him constantly and He loves those who keep themselves pure and clean; the believer turns always with repentance. When the believer says to his brother Muslim: "UFF" the relations will be severed between them, and when he says to him: "You are an atheist" one of them will be an atheist, and when he accuses him as being a disbeliever, Islam will flee from his heart exactly as the salt dissolves in water. The gate of repentance is always open to him who wants it, so turn to Allah with sincere repentance in the hope that your Lord will remove from you your ills, and fulfill every engagement when you have entered into it, for neither a grace nor a bloom of life have been terminated but due to the sins committed by them, for Allah never harms those who serve Him, and if only they started their actions with the supplication and turning to Allah with repentance, the grace would not have been terminated, for if only they had resorted to Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious - with their new truthful intention when heath; indignation, and the termination of graces and prosperity had befallen upon them, and they had not lost their hearts, or when they spent, they were not extravagant, Allah would have corrected for them what they had spoiled, and He would have compensated them by returning back to them every grace. If the Muslim is subjected to hard circumstances, he shouldn't complain against Allah - The Exalted and the Glorious - and he should turn to him with supplication instead, He - in Whose Hands are solutions of all the matters and conditions as well as their managements. Three things are found in every person: Prognostication; conceitedness; and Wishing, so if any one of you prognosticates, he should resume in his prognostication, and he should mention Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious - and if he is afraid to become conceited, he then should restart to have his meal with his slave or his servant, and he should milk his cow, and if he wishes, he should ask Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious - and invoke Him, but he shouldn't compare his evil desire with Allah's Pleasure. Associate with people regarding their limits of knowledge, and leave what they deny, and avoid incapacitate them above what they can bear, either of what you believe or what we deny, for our affair is very difficult to the extent that it is hardly to find a human being who can bear it except by a very close angle or delivered messenger, or an examined devotee whom Allah has examined in respect to Faith. If the devil whispered to some one of you, he should resort in Allah and say: I believed in Allah and His Messenger and I am sincere to His religion. When Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious - dresses a believer a new garment, he should perform ablution, and pray two Rak'ahs in which he should recite the verses of Al Fatiha[1]; the verses of Al Kurse[2:255]; the verses of Al Qadr[97], and he should praise Allah who veiled his private parts and ornamented him amongst people, where he should recite often There is no might and power but in Allah. For nothing in him will disobey Allah, and he will be given in every path he walks an angel asking Allah's forgiveness for him, and asking Allah's Mercy for him as well.

Dismiss the evil thinking away from you; for Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious - has forbidden Th.-is; I am with the Messenger of Allah(SAW) and with my offspring or house hold, and my two sons will be at the cistern, so if any one who wants us, he should act upon our path, since there is a superior man for every house hold, and we are given the intercession, and there will be an intercession for every one who loves us, so compete to meet us at the cistern for we protect it from our enemies, and we let our lovers and patrons drink from it, and he who drinks from it once he'll never feel thirsty again at all. Our cistern is full and has two water spouts supplied from Paradise: One of them is supplied from Tasnim, and the other is from (Ma'ien) or the clear flowing water, where saffron ornaments its two edges; and its pebbles are from pearl and corundum; and that is Al Kawthar. All the matters will return back finally to Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious - and they do not belong to the devotees, for if they belonged to the latter they wouldn't have chosen any one other than us, and Allah bestows His Mercy upon whom He wants, so praise Allah for what he has distinguished you regarding the graces, and the Noble origin, every eye will weep on the Day of Resurrection, and every eye will remain open on that Day except he whom Allah will distinguish with His generosity, and he who wept due to what had been violated regarding al-Hussein and the offspring of Muhammed(SAW). Our Shiites are in the same rank of the bees, for if only the people knew what there was in their ventures, they would have eaten it. Do not push him who is having his meal to end it quickly, and leave him till he has enough, and do not urge him to end quickly when he relieves himself till he ends up his need. If any one of you wakes up suddenly from his sleep, he should recite: «No god but Allah, the Lenient; the Generous; the living, the Self-subsisting; and Allah has Power over all things, praised be the Lord of the prophets and the Lord of the Messengers, and praised be the Lord of the seven heavens and what they imply, and the Lord of the seven terrain's and what they imply, and the lord of the Great throne, and praised Be Allah the Lord of the Worlds», and he should recite when he sits and before he stands up: «Sufficient is Allah for me, sufficient is the Lord for me rather than the people, sufficient is He who is sufficient for me since I was born, Allah sufficeth me and He is the best Disposer of affairs». When any one of you wakes up during the night he should look at the all parts of the heaven and recite:}Behold! In the creation of the heavens... For thou never breakest thy promise!"{[3:190-194]. He who drinks from the Zamzam well or he will be cured from every disease, so drink from its water which flows from the corner containing the black stone, for there are five rivers of Paradise - The Euphrates, the Nile, the Syhan and the Syjan rivers - flowing from under this stone.

The Muslim shouldn't go for the holy struggle (Jihad) with him who doesn't believe in the judgment and doesn't work upon the decision of Allah after the battle, and if he died, he will be considered as an equalizer of our enemy against us regarding the restraint of our rights, and flaming us up with rage or enraging us, so his death will be similar to the pre-Islamic period's death. Mentioning us - we the people of the house - will become a healing from the diseases and illnesses as well as the obsession of suspicion, and our aim consists in the pleasure of Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious, and he who adopts our matter, he will be with us in the holy place, and he who victorizes our matter, he will be very similar to that who is sacrificing with his blood for the sake of Allah, and he who witnesses us in our battle or hears our callers and doesn't support or victorize us, Allah will knock him down on his nose in Hell.

We are the gate of help and relief when they are pious in the very hard circumstances, and we are the gate of posture (where it is the gate of peace), and he who retards, he will perish. Due to us Allah opens and seals; due to us He establishes; due to us Allah dismisses the arid erra; and due to us Allah will descend the rain, so do not let the chief deceiver deceives you about all the sky has not descended any drop of rain since Allah restrained it, and if any one of us observes his prayer, the heaven will descend the rain; the earth will bring out its plant; rancor will be dismissed from the hearts of the people; lions and brutes will reconcile to the extent that any woman will walk between Iraq and Damascus safely on the grass ornamented with the make up without being frightened by any lion.

If only you knew your position in the sight of your enemy, and your endurance regarding what you hear of bad and harmful thing, your eyes would have been comforted, and if only you had missed me, you would have seen some matters due to which any one of you would have wished death instead regarding what he would see and feel from the people of atheism, as well as the offensive of the people of conceitedness and disparagement regarding the rights of the Most High Allah, so he would feel afraid upon him self. So if this happens then hold fast all together by the Rope Which Allah (stretches out for you) and be not divided among yourselves, and with hold the endurance and the prayer as well Guarding one's self (al-Taqiya), and be informed that Allah - The Blessed and The Exalted - abominates amongst His devotees he who is inconstant, so do not deviate from the truth, and the patronage of the people of the truth, for he who substitutes any one rather than us, certainly he'll perish, and life will deceive him where he finally will go out of it with grief.

When any one of you enters his house he should greet his family by saying Peace be upon you or Assalamu 'Alaikaum, and if he has no family, he should say Assalamu 'Alaina - or peace be upon us from our Lord -, where he should recite the verses of Al Ikhlas[112] when he enters his house, for this may dismiss poverty from it. Teach your kids the prayers, and oblige them to observe them when they are eight years old. Avoid being close to dogs, and if any one touches any moistured dog, he should wash his garment, and if the dog is dry, he should spray his garment with water.

When you hear unclear thing regarding our speech, you should check us back and you should stop at it to know its explanation; then you should show complete submission till you know the truth, and avoid being quick transmitters, to us the evaluated man checks back, and towards us the negligent who neglects our right will follow. He who insists on joining us, he will reach us, and he who chooses a path other than ours he will perish. Multitudes of Allah's Mercy will be upon our lovers, and multitudes of Allah's anger and displeasure will be upon our haters, our path is frugality, and guidance consists in our matter and aim.

Inattentiveness shouldn't consist in five matters: The superfluous prayer; Friday; the first two Rak'ahs of each determined prayer; the morning; and after the sun set; and the devotee shouldn't recite the Qur'an if he is impure till he is purified. And give every Sura its deserved right when reciting it during the Kneeling and prostration in any prayer, and the man shouldn't wear a shirt like the people of the prophet Lout.

The equivalent prayer is given to him who wears only one dress which two ends are tied around his neck, and when he wraps the thick garment around himself. The devotee shouldn't prostrate himself neither on a picture under his forehead nor on a rug including an image, for the latter is allowed only when under his legs or he should cover it with something. The devotee shouldn't put the coins which include an image in his garment when observing his prayer, for he is allowed to hide them either in some place or behind himself in his garment. The devotee shouldn't prostrate himself on a pile of wheat or a heap of barley or on any thing eatable, and he shouldn't also prostrate himself on the bread. Then should not perform his ablution till he mentions Allah and before the water touches him: In the name of Allah and by the help of Allah. O Allah! make me one of those who turn to Him constantly and those who keep themselves pure and clean. And when he finishes his ablution, he should say: I testify that there is no god but Allah, He is the Only One Who has no partner, and I testify that Muhammed is His devotee and His Messenger (SAW) Then he deserves Allah's forgiveness. He who performs the prayer and aware of its due right, he will be forgiven. The devotee shouldn't pray the extra number of prayers in the time of the obligatory prayer without an excuse, where he can perform the determined prayer later on if he is able to do so. For Allah - The Blessed and The Exalted - said: Those Who remain steadfast to their prayer[70:23], which means they perform what they have missed during the night or morning. So the extra prayers or (Al-Nawafil) can not replace the obligatory prayers in their due times, so commence with the obligatory one then pray the extra prayers you like.

One prayer in the two sanctuaries or the two sacred places [Mecca and Medina] equals to one thousand other prayers, and the reward of spending one Dirham in the pilgrimage [Al Hajj] equals to one thousand Dirhams. The devotee should yield when praying, for he whose heart becomes submissive to Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious - All his senses should become submissive so he can't sport with any thing.

Submissiveness or (Qunut) regarding the Friday prayer before the second Rak'ah, and the devotee should recite Al-Fatiha[1], and Al jumu'ah[26], and Al Munafiqin[63]. You should also sit between the two Rak'ahs in order to comfort your senses, then you can observe the prayer exactly as we do.

When any one stands for prayer between the Hands of Allah - Splendor Be His Majesty - he should widen his chest and stand straight without tipping forward, and when he finishes his prayer, he should raise his palms towards the sky and start the supplication. Abdullah bin Sabb'a said: Leader of the faithful: Is not Allah every where?, He(A.S) said: Yes, he said: Then why should the devotee raise his two hands toward the sky?, he(A.S) said: Don't you recite And in heaven is your sustenance, as (also) that which ye are promised[51:22], so from where then the provision is asked but from its source?. The devotee shouldn't turn when performing his prayer till he asks Allah the Paradise, and till he seeks protection in Him from Hell, and asks Him also to give him the lustrous beautiful eyed companions; When any one of you stands to perform his prayer, he should stand as if he is saying farewell. Smiling doesn't break (or stop) the prayer, but the loud burst of laughter breaks it. If any one feels sleepy, he should perform ablution when he sleeps even for a while, and when he feels drowsy he should go for a sleep after breaking his prayer, since you don't know whether you supplicate Allah for your self or against it, May be you supplicate against your self.

He who loves us by his heart; helps us by his tongue, and fights with us our enemies by his hand, he will be with us in Paradise and in our rank, and he who loves us by his heart, and helps us by his tongue, but doesn't fight our enemies with us, he will be with us but in two grades less, and he who loves us by his heart and he doesn't help us by his tongue or his hand, he'll be with us in Paradise, and he who hates us and helps others against us by his tongue and heart, and doesn't fight with us by his hand, he'll be in Hell .

The people of Paradise will certainly look at the dwellings of our Shiites exactly as the man looks at the stars in the heaven, so if you recite the last suras of the praising you should say: Praised by the Most High Allah, and when you recite: Allah and His Angels send blessings on the prophet[33:56] then you should ask Allah's blessing to be granted upon him when in prayer or when not praying.

Nothing in the body is less grateful than the eye, so do not give it what it desires for it may deviate your attention from mentioning Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious, and when you recite the verses of Al Tin[95], you should say after finishing it «We are the witnesses to this truth, and when you recite: Say ye: "We believe in Allah[2:136], then you should say till His saying: And we bow to Allah (in Islam), and when the devotee says after the Rak'ahs when sitting in his last testifying: I testify that there is no god but Allah, He is the Only One, and no partner with Him, and I testify that Muhammed is His devotee and Messenger, and that verily the Hour will come: There can be no doubt about it, and that Allah will resurrect those in graves, he, after that, blows a wind, his prayer is considered then complete. Allah has been worshipped better than when seeing the devotee often going to His house (the Mosque). Seek good in the feet of the camels and their necks, which come and go. The Messenger of Allah(SAW) commanded us to throw raisins in Zamzam cistern where he brought them from Al-Taiy'ef, for its water tastes bitter to the extent he wanted to break its bitterness, so do not drink it when it becomes ripen.

When the devotee is naked, the devil will look at him where it will crave after him, so try to veil your selves, for the man is forbidden to roll up his dress over his thigh when associating with a group. He who eats something hateful regarding its smell (such as Onion), he shouldn't then come to the Mosque. The devotee should raise his back when prostrating himself in the obligatory prayer.

If any one of you wants to wash himself, he should start with his two arms to wash them. Try to raise your voice when you recite or when saying Allah is great or when praising Him till you hear clearly your voice. If you want to turn a little bit during the prayer then turn from the right side.

Sustain your self from This World since the best sustenance is piety or the fearful of Allah. Two groups of the people of Israel were perished, one of them was perished in the sea, and the other in the deer, so do not eat but what you know. He who hides a pain three days from the people, and complains that to Allah, the due right will be upon Allah to heal him from it.

The devotee will be farthest from Allah when his concern is dedicated for his stomach and his private parts. The devotee shouldn't go for a trip where he feels a fraid for his religion and prayer both. Hearing is given four things: The prophet(SAW); Paradise; Hell; and the Lustrous beautiful eyed companions when any one finishes his prayer, he should asks Allah's blessings to be granted to the prophet Muhammed(SAW), and the prophet will hear him, and his supplication will be raised to the heaven, and he who asks Allah to admit him to Paradise, the latter will say: 'O Lord! grant Your devotee what he asked'. He who asked Allah's protection from Fire, the latter will say: "O Lord! protect Your devotee according to what he asked you regarding the protection", and he who asks Allah to grant him the Lustrous beautiful eyed companions; the latter will say: "O Allah! give him what he asked You". Singing is considered the lamentation of Satan when it lost Paradise.

When any one of you wants to sleep he should put his right hand under the right side of his face and say: In the name of Allah, I stretch my side for the sake of Allah depending the sect of Abraham; the religion of Muhmmmed and the patronage of whom Allah has commanded us to obey; what Allah wished will be, and what he didn't wish will not be, so if any one says this when going to sleep, he will be protected from the thief, illness, and destruction, and the angels will ask Allah's forgiveness for him. He who recites the verses of Al-Ikhlās[112] when going to sleep, Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious - will appoint fifty thousand angels to guard him during the night.

When any one of you wants to sleep he shouldn't stretch his side on the bed before saying: I seek refuge in Allah's Honor; Greatness; Omnipotence; Sovereignty; Mercy; Pity; Forgiveness, Power; Might; Majesty; Innovation; Rules; Gathering; the Messenger(SAW) and the power of Allah upon whom He wants regarding my self, my religion; my house hold; my son; my wealth; the closures of my deeds, and what Allah has given me as provision and authorized me upon, against every devil and poisonous creature and against every evil jinn or man, and against the evil thing resulting from every creeping creature or against what comes out of it, and against the evil thing resulting from what comes from the sky and from what ascends through it, and against the evil of every creeping creature under your control. Surely the straight way is my sustainer's way, and Allah has power over all things, and that there is no power or strength except with Allah - The Exalted and The Mighty. The Messenger of Allah(SAW) used to seek Allah's refuge for al-Hassan and al-Hussein, and he commanded us to recite this.

We are the keepers of Allah's religion, and we are the lanterns of knowledge. So when any learned man among us goes off, a new one will appear, and no one will be misled when he follows us, and no one will be guided to the truth when he denies us, and no one will be saved when he supports our enemy against us; and no one will be helped when he capitulates our enemy against us, so do not abandon us due to craving after the means of This World which will vanish at the end from you, and you will vanish also from it and he who prefers This World than the Next and he chooses This World instead of choosing us; his grief will be greater tomorrow regarding what Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious - said: Lest the soul should (then) say: 'Ah! Woe is me! In that I neglected (My Duty) towards Allah, and was but among those who mocked! [39:56].

Wash your children from the dirty water for the devils smell it and the kid will be startled by them when sleeping, and the two writing angels (above his shoulders) will be harmed. The first look at any woman is reckoned for you, so do not follow her by another look, and avoid the seduction. The wine's engager will meet Allah - The Exalted and The Glorious - on the Day of Resurrection as if he was worshipping an idol, al-Hajir bin'Adi asked: leader of the faithful, who is the engager with wine?, he(A.S) said: He who when finds it drinks it.

Eat citron before your meal and after it, for the household of Muhammed - peace be upon them all-used to do that. The pears comfort the heart and relieve the pains of the intestines (the colic).

When the man stands up for the prayer, Satan begins to look at him enviously regarding what he sees of Allah's Mercy covering him. Enjoin what is just and forbid what is wrong, and be patient (or endure) constantly whatever has befallen upon you. The lantern of the believer consists in the acknowledgement of our rights (the offspring of the prophet). The extreme blindness will be in him who becomes blind of our virtues, and in him who shows open hostility towards us without noticing any fault made by us except that we call the people to obey Allah or the truth, where others call for both the seduction and the worship of This World, and he who denies us and shows hostility toward us.

The banner of truth belongs to us, for he who seeks its shade, it will protect him; he who follows it he will win; he who abandons it will perish and he who adheres to it will survive, I am the drone of the believers, and wealth is the drone of oppressives. I swear by the name of Allah that I will not be loved but by a believer, and I will not be hated but a hypocrite.

I made her private parts lawful by the Virtue of your command, and I accepted her by the virtue of Your Trust, so if you predestined me to have a child from her, then make him a perfect boy, and prevent Satan to find a path to his heart or to be a partner of him.

For qualities consist in the hypodermic or shot, for the Messenger of Allah(SAW) said that it may relax intestine; it may dismiss the disease of the abdomen, and may strengthen the body. Use the violet as a medicine, and abide to the cupping, and when any one of you wants to make a sexual intercourse with his wife he should avoid the days when the crescent appears or the midst of the months, for Satan asks for children in these two times, and devils command the people to be polytheists in such days, so they come and wait you to conceive your women. Avoid cupping; shaving and cutting the hair on Wednesday for the latter is considered an evil day, and Hell was created on it, and there is a time on Friday when no one use cupping during it but will die.
